Althisin-Hemrich Wedding Held At St. Cecilia's Mass

MR. and MRS. B. ALTHISIN

Wedding vows of Eunice Marie Hemrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hemrich, 283 S. E. 9th Street, Beaverton and Bernard Althisin, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Althisin, Route 1, Beaverton, were solemnized May 15 at the 11:15 mass conducted by Reverend Murphy, of Portland, and Reverend Sniderhon, pastor at Beaverton, in St. Cecilia's Catholic Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white slipper satin, with fingertip veil and a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a purple orchid on a white prayerbook.

Margaret Holboke, of Beaverton, was maid of honor. Her gown was of blue lace over satin and she carried a nosegay of pink carnations. Junior bridesmaids were Sheila Patterson, niece of the groom, who was dressed in green organza, and Virginia Gonty, of Heppner, niece of the bride, who wore yellow organza. Both carried sweet peas.

Best man was Clifford Althisin of Van Nuys, Cal. Joseph Berger, Beaverton and Charles Hemrich, Portland, were ushers.

Mrs. Balfe was musician for the ceremony and the St. Cecilia choir offered vocal numbers. The church was decorated in Red Hawthorne, iris and white snapdragons.

At the reception, held in the American Legion hall, in Beaverton, Mrs. Betty Wagenblast, sister of the groom, cut the cake. Guest book was handled by Mrs. Clifford Althisin and the bride's sister, Mrs. Edmond Gonty, presided at the gift table.

The bride's going-away ensemble was a brown dress and tan coat. The couple honeymooned at the beaches and have established their home in Portland.

She graduated from Beaverton high school. The groom, who graduated from Lincoln high school, works at Montgomery Ward. During the war, he served three years, one of which was overseas.

The bride's mother was dressed in navy blue while the groom's mother wore gray satin and lace. Out of town guests were Mrs. Elizabeth Konesky, grandmother of the groom, Mrs. Gonerio, Mrs. Madge Super, Mrs. Helen Fish and Mrs. Pat Conner, aunts of the groom, all of Great Falls, Montana; Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Gonty, sister of the bride, from Heppner.

MAN SHOTS HIT-RUN VICTIM IN DAYLIGHT

A half-paralyzed victim of a hit and run, crawling on the lawn of Mrs. H. M. Baker, 7418 S. W. Bertha Beaverton highway, was shot in broad daylight, last Thursday afternoon, by a local marksman.

But that's only one way of telling the story. Mrs. Baker, in great agitation, had called the city hall of Beaverton to tell of the injured Johnny Skunk, who was dragging his hind quarters all over her front lawn. She was, to put it mildly, more than a little perturbed and somewhat reluctant to get close enough to effect a "coup de grace."

The Humane Society had advised her to shoot the animal but she couldn't quite bring herself to that pitch. Recorder Busse, at the hall, told her to cover it with an apple box pending such time as he could direct reinforcements for the situation.

Later in the afternoon, wearing his trusty .22, D. F. Kanneman, local dog control officer, swaggered over to the Baker residence. With one neat shot, he dispatched the injured animal.

He reports it was about half grown and didn't turn loose with its heavy artillery at any time— as far as he could judge.

MAJOR OPERATION

M. A. Pool underwent a major operation on his knee last week and is convalescing at the Veterans Hospital in Portland.

Playwrights Bid To Contest For Original Scripts

LEWIS AND CLARK COLLEGE, Portland, June 9—: A playwriting contest to give young writers an opportunity to have their original scripts examined and produced has been formulated under the chairmanship of Arthur Coe Gray, drama department head.

The contest is open to colleges of 1000 registration or more in the United States with the prizes set at $125, first; $75, second; and $50, third.

No restrictions as to form, length or theme have been set but plays of social or religious significance will receive the special attention of the judges.

All entries must be postmarked on or before, midnight, January 1, 1950. Winners will be announced March 30. All manuscripts are to be addressed to Department of Speech Arts, Lewis and Clark College, Portland, Oregon.
