

Teen Age Center Schedules 2-Day Inspection Dates

Public inspection by parents, sponsoring organizations and the interested public has been scheduled for June 29 and 30, at which time adults will have an opportunity to see what provision is being made for their children's recreation.

Formal opening, with a program of entertainment, is dated for July 6, when the entire program for the Beaverton area will get underway.

The youth center will be available to all youth and church organizations, when it is not being used by the recreation group. Equipment, including "Coke" bar, shuffleboard, ping pong tables and juke box will be installed by next week according to Harry "Doc" Rothschild of Tillman's Tip Top, who is in charge of this department.

Noted in the past week were the following donations: Beaverton IOOF, $25 and Cheerio Club, of Beaverton, $5.

Needed for the complete furnishing of the youth center are occasional chairs, folding chairs, card tables, pool table, ping pong table, divan, scatter rugs, desk and chair, filing cabinet, desk, magazine racks, writing table, straight-back chairs and mirrors.

Anyone able and willing to furnish any of these articles is asked to contact Mr. Rothschild at the Tip Top, or call Mr. Ed Kenney at Beaverton 2871 or Broadway 0092.

SUBSTITUTE POLICEMAN

New face in police uniform is that of J. L. Neys, who is filling in for "Skip" Weigel during the regular day policeman's sickness.

Lodge Postpones Initiation Until Official Visits

The Beaverton Rebekah Lodge met Tuesday evening with the intention of initiating new members but due to the word received from the President of the Rebekah Assembly Leila Ramsey of Madras that she would visit Beaverton Lodge June 21 the new members were held over for initiation on that date.

June wedding anniversaries were celebrated with a gift presented to Maud Miller for being married the most years and Florence Heard for being married the least years. Gifts were presented to Olive Ramsey of Hillsboro, our new state "Good of the Order" chairman, Mable Gilmore our District Deputy President and Mae Lusk our convention officer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bollinger were host and hostess in the dining room where a wedding cake, jello and coffee were served.

VISITS HIS AUNT

Harrison, young son of Mrs. Harriet Crim, of the Tip-Top waiters staff, is enjoying a version of bright, California sunshine on the occasion of his visit in Riverside with his aunt.

The lad is expected to return to his usual stamping grounds shortly and has high hopes of bringing with him a real California tan... or a reasonable facsimile.

The advantages of many commercial codes is that they condense the message into one-fifth the space.
