Neighbors Fete John Schilling's 80th Birthdate

Old friends and neighbors honored John Schilling, on Division street, with a complete surprise party June 11, on the occasion of his 80th birthday. Host and hostess for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. J. Strauss.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Art Carlson and Mr. and Mrs. William Ball, of Beaverton; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scheer, Portland, and two old neighbors, Mrs. Margaret Swain and Mrs. Fred Pigot, also of Portland.

The evening was spent in sociable reminiscences. The honored guest received a bathrobe and pipe as gifts.

He has lived in the Beaverton vicinity for about 50 years and is thought to be the oldest pioneer in this area. He was totally unprepared for his birthday party and expressed total and complete surprise at the arrangements.

Refreshments of strawberries, ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

LETTER OF APPRECIATION

To the People of Beaverton and Surrounding Areas:

Dear Folks,

We, of the Beaverton Junior Chamber of Commerce, wish to express our hearty thanks and appreciation for your assistance, through flower donations and financial support in making our first entry in the Portland Rose Festival Parade a grand success.

As you no doubt have heard, or read we took FIRST PRIZE in the division comprising all towns in Oregon outside of Portland. Without your help and generosity (which exceeded all expectations) we doubt whether we could have done so well. Whatever glory is forthcoming we share with you as residents of the Beaverton area.

It would be impossible to name you all individually, but in whatever way you helped we felt it, and we want you to know it was greatly appreciated, especially the way some of you stuck through the night before the parade and helped decorate the float.

For all your grand cooperation we and the community say, "Thanks and Well done, neighbors!"

Home security also means protection from risks of loss from fire and theft. IT'S COMMON SENSE that inadequate insurance is false economy.
