sure the office is filled.

A number of suggestions were offered for improving the cemetery, some of which were spraying with 2-4D to kill weeds and piping water into the lot. Ideas for soliciting additional funds were forthcoming with no concrete formula set. It was suggested that families interested might take collections at their family reunions to help establish a fund.

ORDAINED MINISTER

Mrs. James Smith reports that her son Bill C. Smith has been ordained as a Baptist minister. He was graduated May 23rd from Ouchita Bible College, Arkadelphia, Arkansas, the highest ranking senior.

He was also a member of the historical society. Bill is well known in this district and around Beaverton where he attended high school.

CAMP ENROLLMENT

Guests at the James Walters home during the past week have been Mr. and Mrs. Robert Judge and daughter Dianna, recently from Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Judge will enroll presently at a missionary camp near Chico, Calif. for a year's training. Mrs. Judge was formerly Barbara Walters.

Another daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunt and their small son arrived Saturday evening from Cleveland, Ohio for a months stay with the Walters.

PORTLAND COLLISION

Severe cuts and injuries were received by Mrs. John Sharpe and her daughter Judy, 15, Sunday, June 19 when the car in which they were riding struck a telephone pole after colliding with another car at N. Lombard St. and Vancouver Ave., in Portland.

Mrs. Sharpe received head lacerations, abdominal injuries and broken ribs. Her daughter suffered severe throat lacerations, broken nose and cuts about her knees. Her head was thrust thru the windshield. Two smaller children in the car escaped injury. After treatment at Emanuel hospital the two were taken home.

PENNSYLVANIA GUEST

A guest at the Fremont Merewether home last week was Mrs. Mary Giles of Pittsburgh, Penn. Retiring after a career as church secretary for the Highland Presbyterian church in Pittsburgh, Mrs. Giles is vacationing here on a trip given by the church. She is greatly interested in Oregon and expresses the desire to make her home here.

Also guests of the Merewethers is Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Jr., and children of Lexington, Ore. She is Mrs. Merewether's sister.

IN PINK AND BLUE

A pink and blue shower Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harold Peterson honored Mrs. Frank Parmer. Co-hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Calvin Katterman and Mrs. B. B. Reeves.

In attendance was a large group of ladies from the community.

Club Celebrates First Birthday, Seats Officers

The Beaverton Business and Professional Women's club celebrated its first anniversary at the dinner meeting held last Thursday at the Kiwanis Hall. A large birthday cake with one candle was placed at the head table and pink and white flowers and decorations carried out the theme.

The News Service Committee had charge of the dinner and program. Mrs. Margaret Miller was chairman and was assisted by Mesdames Margaret Hendren, Gladys Tucker, Mina Jacobson, Mary Dean, Neola Hornung, and Miss Katherine Dessinger. A news bulletin summarizing club activities for the year contained the menu and program for the evening.

Mrs. Stevens of Seley Pomeroy's Broadway Floral Shop in Portland demonstrated corsage making and flower arrangement.

Miss Dolores Carlson, the club's candidate for Goddess in the Happy Days celebration was introduced and presented with a gift and the good wishes of the club.

Mrs. Emma Boyd installed the officers for the ensuing year: president, Mrs. Hildah Highbe; first vice president, Mrs. Marjory Soholm; 2nd vice president, Mrs. Gladys Strickland; Recording secretary, Mrs. Noreen Brookhardt; Corresponding secretary, Mrs. La Rene Ely; treasurer, Mrs. Alice Carlson.

Diane Smith gave two piano selections and the Misses Katherine Dessinger, Evangeline Moshofsky, and Mesdames Leonor Foxton, Martha Bernardini, Dolores McMahon, Emma Boyd, Lois O'Connor and Valleda Chaffin gave the emblem ceremony.

Mrs. Hildah Highbe was presented a baby carriage from the club.

A cake donated by Mrs. Emma Boyd was auctioned off as the final event of the evening.
