

Stella Ghiglietti Weds Missourian June 12 Nuptials

Stella Ghiglietti, of Beaverton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony B. Ghiglietti, and William M. Reasons of Fisk, Missouri, were united in marriage June 12th at 11:15 a.m. at St. Cecilia Catholic Church. Father Sniderhon officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white sheer gown with three foot train, long sleeves and finger tip veil with shelled tiara. Her bridal bouquet was pink rapture rosebuds and stephanotis.

Miss Mary Ghiglietti, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore pink taffeta with round neckline, cap sleeves and flared skirt with matching gloves and hat, carrying a nosegay of sweet peas, carnations, and rose buds. Bridesmaids were Miss Penice Potestio, cousin of the bride, and Gabriella, sister of the bride. They wore blue dresses fashioned somewhat like the maid of honor with matching gloves and hat and carrying nosegays of sweet peas, carnations and rose buds.

Clem Young of Portland, was best man. Ushers were Dick Barber and Bud Davis.

The bride's mother was dressed in a light blue spring dress suit with white accessories and white orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, family and close friends proceeded to the bride's home for breakfast.

The reception was held at 2:00 p.m. in the American Legion Hall. Presiding at the punch bowl was Miss Joann Kramer and Mrs. Ester Davis. Mrs. Fred Kramer and Mrs. Robert Crane cut the cake and Misses Betty and Bernice Anderson and Miss Phyllis Averitt served the ice cream. The three Misses also had charge of the gifts while Mrs. Ann Potestio passed the guest book. The coffee was served by Mrs. Clem Young.

Immediately following the reception at the American Legion Hall, a private party was held at the home of the bride with many close friends and relatives attending.

The bride's going away costume was a light gabardine blue suit with white accessories and beautiful orchid corsage. On their return from their wedding trip along the Oregon Coast, the newlyweds will be home in Portland.

Second All-Star Grid Game Aids Shrine Hospital

The Shrine hospital, of Portland, will benefit in the second annual all-star football game set for the Multnomah Stadium on Saturday night, August 27, when the outstanding prep gridgers of the state will clash. Announcement is made of awards which await participants.

The giant Rogoway trophy, most coveted of all, will go to the most valuable player on the field. This winner will be decided by a vote of sports writers covering the game.

Last year winner, Sam Baker of Corvallis, scored four touchdowns to lead his Oregon All-Stars team to a 38 to 13 victory over the Portland All-Stars.

Each player and coach will receive a gold tie clasp and football as a permanent memento of the game. A belt and gold buckle, identical to those given U. S. Olympic games athletes, is also on the award list.

Each graduated high school senior selected on the two opposing squads will be allowed to keep the Shrine game T-shirt and jacket which he wears during the training period.

Final award is an engraved place which makes each player a member of the Shrine game alumni association and entitles him to two tickets for each future contest, in a specially reserved section.

Advance tickets may be ordered for the benefit classic at game headquarters, in Parlor B of the Portland hotel.

SPORTSMEN'S SOCIAL PROMISES INTEREST

Sportsmen and their wives are promised an interesting time at the regular monthly social night meeting of the Beaverton Rod and Gun Club, Friday evening, July 15 at 8:00 p.m.

The Oregon State Game Commission representatives Mr. John McKean, and Clark Walsh will be on hand to talk of conservation and plans for the Tualatin Valley area.

Movies will be shown the group by Al Raab and Al McKinzie of their recent field trips to Hart Mt. Antelope Range and Whitman National Forest's Deer and Elk range area. A travelogue movie is also promised as well as refreshments and door prizes.

The rod and gun club's meeting place is on Canyon Road in the Cliff rooms directly across from Canyon Road Lumber Yard.

BOXING REVIVES WITH PLAN TO BUILD UP NEW FIGHTERS

"TEX" SALKELD, MATCHMAKER, GUIDES OUTDOOR RING CARDS TO START JULY 19 AT JANTZEN

With organization of a new promotional group, under the name of the Hayden Boxing Club, boxing in the area shows signs of a vigorous revival. "Tex" Salkeld, matchmaker, will guide the outdoor ring cards presented at the midday auto track in Jantzen Beach park, with the first presentation July 19.

Salkeld declares the new club was created for two purposes. First is to keep fan interest at a peak during the summer with presentation of fast action mixes at comparable prices.

Second, the new lineup will help develop a nucleus of hometown main event material. A number of promising youngsters have eager aspirations for ring fame but they are lacking the experience that can only be gained in the square circle.

For what is the first outdoor card in six years, Salkeld brings together, as main events for the July 19 fight, Dick Wolfe, of Portland, and Bobby Burgess, of San Francisco. Supporting fights include Buddy Gilman of Seattle and Billy Smith of San Francisco, in the ten-round semi-windup and three four-round preliminaries.

BEAVERTON PEE WEES RACK UP 3RD IN ROW

The Beaverton Junior Chamber of Commerce Pee Wee baseball team won its third game in a row July 11 by beating the Scappoose Pee Wees 14 to 0. Gary Oberst pitched the full seven inning allowing only two hits and striking out eleven. Beaverton committed only one error and executed two double plays.

Beaverton scored six runs in the first inning on two bases on balls, one Scappoose error, a single by Oberst, a double by Allan and a triple by Lasky. The Jay Cees scored two runs in the third inning, three in the sixth inning and three runs in the seventh inning.

The Beaverton Jaycees are playing in the suburban PeeWee League with Scappoose, Tigard, Russellville, Parkrose and Bashor's of Portland. All league games are played on Monday nights beginning at 6:15. The next Beaverton PeeWee game will be played at Tigard July 18. Beaverton, Tigard and Bashor's are tied for first place each with a three won and one loss record.
