Faye Van Hying
Weds June 12 In Church Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sincick

By candlelight on June 12, Faye Van Hying, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van Hying, Beaverton, was married to August J. Sincick, of Portland, in the Bethel Congregational church. Rev. Wend Albert F. King officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was gown in white satin with fingertip veil held in place by a headress of seed pearls. Her bouquet was of sweet peas and roses.

Miss Shirley Van Hying, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her dress was of green organdy and she carried roses, sweet peas and carnations.

Bridesmaids Miss Marilyn Mulkey and Mrs. James Batdorf, both of Portland, were dressed in orchid creations and carried nosegays similar to the maid of honor. Joyce Van Hying was junior attendant and wore yellow organdy.

John Van Hying was best man. Ushers were Archie and Lawrence Davies, both of Portland.

Mrs. Barrett Randall played the wedding music and accompanied Harris Hansen, soloist for the occasion.

At a reception held in the church parlors, Mrs. Frank Adington poured. Mrs. LaVern Van Hying cut the cake with Bernice and Betty Anderson assisting. Florence Maddox and Irene Ling had charge of the guest book.

Following the ceremony, the couple left on a honeymoon trip to Yellowstone National Park. For going away, the bride chose a pink suit with white accessories and white orchid.

Upon their return, the couple will reside in Portland.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized June 19 at 8:00 p.m. in the Pilgrim Lutheran Church of Beaverton for Miss Doris Cantroll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cantroll of Hillsboro, to Robert Huth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Huth of Hazledale.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin gown with veil and carried an orchid on a white Bible.

Her matron of honor was Mrs. Alberta McClung, sister of the groom, whose formal was green. She carried carnations and rose buds. Maxine Huth and Mrs. Carl Huth were the bridesmaids their dresses were yellow and pink organdy.

Nollie Depew was best man. Carl Huth and Kenneth McClung were the ushers.

The Rev. Erwin Gerkin performed the ceremony.

The reception was held on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Huth of Hazledale.

The couple honeymooned at the beaches and are now at home in Portland.

Of Mason-Litvin
Held On June 12

Mrs. William Litvin

In a setting of delphinium, white carnations and Japanese iris, Edith E. Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mason, sr., of Pillager, Minnesota, exchanged marriage vows with William Litvin, son of Mrs. Mary Litvin, Aloha, on June 12, 8 p.m., in the Beaverton Seventh Day Adventist church on 5th and Angel streets.

Gowned in white satin, wearing a fingertip veil of white illusion imported from France, a tiara and bouquet of white carnations and orchids, the bride was given by Fred Mason, jr., of Seattle, her brother. Elder N. C. Erntson, of Portland, officiated.

Maid of honor, Miss Frances Litvin, sister of the groom from Aloha, was dressed in pink taffeta and carried a nosegay of white carnations, sweet peas and roses.

George Litvin, twin brother of the groom, acted as best man.

Ralph Sandberg offered organ music and Mrs. Sandberg sang "O Perfect Love."

Out of town guests included Mrs. Fred Mason, Sr., and son Joe, from Minnesota.

It's getting around.

Mothers Discuss Speed Limits on Bertha-Beav. Rd.

West Dale Mothers Club met Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Molly Miles.

Mrs. Miles had members answer roll call with a subject they would like to see taught in public schools besides the usual reading, writing and arithmetic. The most popular subjects were music and art.

Mrs. Evelyn Drager brought up the subject of speed limits on Bertha-Beaverton Highway. It was agreed upon to send a petition to the State Police Dept. requesting lower speed limits.

Mrs. Evelyn Lauridsen read an article on how to understand a child and Mrs. Mildred Nordquist read "Do's and Don'ts" for parents.

After business Mrs. Miles served refreshments.
