

WEEK'S ACTIVITIES IN CEDAR MILL AREA

BEAVERTON ENTERPRISE—Friday, August 19, 1949

Private Showing Of Fall Fashions Draws 200 Aug. 8

At a fall showing by private invitation, Monday afternoon and evening, August 8, about 200 were guests of Mrs. Peggy Sparks owner and manager of the Fashion House, in the Blanding Dream House on Mayfield road, off Walker road, near Cedar Hills. Friends and business houses sent many flowers in honor of the occasion.

Outstanding among models was Gwen Peeler, of West Slope, who displayed a plum tea suit with matching accessories. Her costume jewelry was an amethyst choker and earrings.

Jane McFarland, of Garden Home, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sparks, was also among the models of the evening, her most popular fashion example being a brown and gold stripe dress with matching feather hat.

Guests were met at the door by Mrs. Sparks and then conducted on a tour of the "dream house" during which the fashion models walked about explaining the gowns and accessories they were wearing.

Refreshments were served in the basement rumpus room.

MONTANA SURGERY

Rev. Simon E. Forsberg, pastor of the Cedar Mill Community Church is hospitalized at Bozeman, Montana, where he underwent surgery.

ENROUTE TO PANAMA

Mrs. Bob Safford and children left August 13 for Lake Ariel Penn. to visit Mr. Safford's mother before sailing from New York for Panama.

Chief Safford has been assigned to shore duty for two years in the Panama Canal Zone. Mrs. Safford has been staying with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fleskes of Veronia.

CALIFORNIA WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Heinrichs and Mr. Heinrich's mother left Friday for Los Angeles, California to attend the wedding of Miss Marjorie Flatley, a granddaughter of Mrs. Heinrichs, Sr. and a niece to the younger Heinrichs.

TROUTDALE HOSPITAL

Lindsay Smith, known as a former resident here is seriously ill. His sister, Mrs. Louis Stark reports that he is confined to the Troutdale Hospital.

New Fire Truck Raises Rating of Rural Fire Dist.

CEDAR MILL — A new fire truck has been added to the fire fighting equipment of the Cedar Mill Rural Fire District.

The new truck is more powerful than the previously purchased truck. It is fully equipped with the latest type equipment.

The fire apparatus is the product of the Neep Equipment Company on an International truck body.

This new No. 1 truck will give the fire department a good rating of fire equipment.

W. John Scofield

William John Scofield, late of Route 2, Box 160, Boring, passed away August 11 suddenly.

He was born April 30, 1886 at Strawberry Point, Iowa. He is well known in the Cedar Mill area, having lived here for several years, having been a home owner in the community and an active member of the Cedar Mill Community Church. Following a tour of the United States after which he spent last winter in St. Petersburg, Florida with Mrs. Scofield he returned here in the spring with plans to leave again soon for Florida.

Survivors are his wife, Clara M., sons, Willard John and Arthur E., a daughter, Marian E.; sisters, Mrs. Charles Arnold of Portland; Mrs. Clyde Gable and Miss Georgia Scofield of St. Petersburg, Fla.; 2 granddaughters and four grandsons.

Services were held at Colonial Mortuary at 2:30 p.m. Monday with interment at Rose City cemetery.

Mr. Scofield was recently retired after long-time service with the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads.

SOON TO OCCUPY

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Emerson and two sons will soon occupy the Rogers place on Cedar Street which they have recently purchased.

TWO WEEK VACATION

Miss Doris Little returned last week from a two weeks vacation visiting relatives and friends in Southern Oregon, Crater Lake, Oregon Caves and the Bill Turners in Los Angeles.

The Turners are former Cedar Mill residents.

Freece-Broad Wed July 30

Married July 30, 8:30 p. m., in Cedar Mill church, was Mildred Broad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Broad, route 3, box 1059, Beaverton, and Harold Freece, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Freece, of Canby, Oregon. Reverend Joe Mitchell, of the Hazeldale Bible Church officiated at the rites.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gown in ivory satin, with finger-tip veil. She carried an orchid on a white bible.

Kenneth Freece, brother of the groom, was best man. Wendell Broad and Eddie Holden were ushers.

Mrs. W. A. Hays, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore an orchid taffeta faille gown. Hilda Leopold, bridesmaid, wore an aqua taffeta faille and Dorothy Rupp, bridesmaid, wore yellow faille. All carried bouquets of baby breath and asters.

Mrs. R. C. Doty was musician, accompanying vocalists Catherine

Stout, Shirley McIntosh and Audrey Golden. The songs were "Love Divine" and "The Sweetest Story."

Mrs. Gertrude Cummins, of Portland, grandmother of the bride, decorated the church in white gladioli. Both the bride's mother and the groom's mother chose a dark print dress and wore corsages.

The bride graduated from Beaverton high school and is well known in the area. Mr. Freece is a graduate of Canby union high school and he had 16 months service in the U. S. Army. He is employed by Wolfard's Brothers, in Oregon City.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Green, Mr. and Mrs. Don Lemon and son Mike, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Freece, of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kelly and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gunther, of Tacoma.

(Photo by Bruno's Studio)

Leedy Grangers Picnic at Pier Park August 7th

CEDAR MILL — Leedy Grange members held a picnic at Pier Park near St. Johns Sunday, August 7. A good time is reported.

On Wednesday evening a pot luck dinner at the C. P. Pennington home on Barnes Road was enjoyed by members of the Leedy Grange Home Economics club and their husbands.

NELSCOTT VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Frazer and daughter Kathryn have been vacationing at Nelscott for the past two weeks.

TO VISIT AUNT

Marie Kaning of Seattle spent two days with the Lester Little family last week. She is Mrs. Little's aunt.

THEY WON'T BELIEVE

When men speak ill of thee, so live that nobody will believe them.

—Plato

Classy Clothes Bring Fines At "Country Fair"

Balloons, tractor rides, a prize pig, and a white elephant auction will highlight the "Country Fair" to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Speer, box 604, Anderson Road, Aloha, Wednesday, August 24, at 5:30.

Patrons are warned to dress in their old clothes, since a "fine for finery" is promised by the committee in charge. Every one must present an old hat before he will be admitted to the fun.

Mrs. Notton Peck and Mrs. Charles Drew are in charge of the booths selling garden produce, canned goods, shrubs, flowers, needle work, old books and magazines.

White elephants will be received for the auction by Mrs. Philip Heid and Mrs. James Speer. Food for the cafeteria is being solicited under the direction of Mrs. Walter Van Kleek.

Games and races will be in progress on the lawn during the evening.

"Ample parking space for cars is being planned," reports Mr. Speer. Attendants will direct drivers to the parking area.

Food will be served all evening from the improvised cafeteria in the milk room. Public is urged to come for dinner at 5:30 on.

Small children will be cared for in the calf pen.

Sponsored by Bethel Congregational church, the event will add money to the organ fund.

- Quality Materials
- Economy Prices
- Satisfaction Guaranteed

WALLY'S SHOE REPAIR

Cedar Mill Park

CLEARANCE

ALL SUMMER MERCHANDISE

SUITS

DRESSES

HATS

HATS

Reg. $12. Not all sizes
As low as $3.00

COTTON DRESSES

Reg. $12. Not all sizes
As low as $6.00

SUITS

Reg. $60. Not all sizes

$35.00

DOZENS OF OTHER COMARATIVE VALUES!

FASHION HOUSE

Blanding's Dream House

575 Mayfield Rd. Capital 3118
Near Cedar Hills

OPEN THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY (any other day or hour by appointment). Evening Appointments Welcomed.

GENERAL ELECTRIC HOUSE PARTY

415 S. W. Douglas Ave. CEDAR HILLS - Everybody Invited!

COMPLETE DISPLAY OF GENERAL ELECTRIC APPLIANCES

IN THIS NEW MODERN HOME

COME and BRING a FRIEND

Prizes - Refreshments

IRONER

WASHER

HOME FREEZER

RANGE

Miss Betty Jane Christensen, General Electric Home Economist, will conduct demonstrations each afternoon at 2 o'clock.

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY
AUGUST 23 and 24

AUTOMATIC WASHER
ROTARY and FLATPLATE IRONERS

THURSDAY, August 25

HOME FREEZERS
PUSH BUTTON RANGE

SPONSORED BY

SUNSET SUPPLY CO., 555 S. Cedar Hills Blvd., Cedar Hills

GENERAL ELECTRIC