WITH LATE VACATIONS ENDED
FALL GARDENING WORK CALLS

By Elsa Shelley

CEDAR MILL PARK—Late vacationers are returning to their homes and it seems everyone is getting ready for fall activities and fall gardening.

TRIP TO NEW YORK

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Holz have returned from their trip to Ridge-wood, New York. On their trip they stopped in Chicago, Niagara Falls and New York City.

On their route home they visited two brothers and a sister of Mrs. Holz in Kansas also a sister of Mr. Holz in Lamar, Colorado.

AT LAZY RANCH

A vacation at Lazy T. ranch near Joseph, Oregon, was enjoyed by Mrs. Fred Darsing who has returned to her home to spend the remainder of her vacation in gardening in her lovely yard.

PTA ORGANIZATION PLAN

A parent teacher organization is in the making at Sunset Valley school. A nominating committee has been selected to nominate officers for the first year. All parents and friends are encouraged to join.

NEW SCOUT DEN

A new cub scout den is being organized in the school. The one den now organized is too large.

NO WORD AS YET

Fred McLain of the McLain Shopping Center and owner of the Chuck Wagon restaurant, is on a deer hunting trip in Central Oregon. No word as yet, as to his success but hope it is good.

WEEKEND VISIT

Week-end visitors of the Glenn Shelleys were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sperr and their infant son Charles David. They came to attend the Oregon State-California game.

TUALATIN VIEW

PRIZE PUNKIN

Mr. and Mrs. Sales of West Haven Drive harvested a pumpkin weight 34 pounds, and 45 inches in diameter.

FROM VERNONIA

Mr. and Mrs. S. Oathes and family of Vernonia, Oregon are visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Oathes on S. W. Morrison st.

BIRTHDAY HONOR

Mrs. Lewis gave a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Art Haden on her birthday.

MICHAEL O'NEILL

There'll be some sharp accounting in the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. O'Neill, 292 Murray avenue, what with young Michael H. on the scene to keep things in line. The young man, weighing 7 lbs. 8 oz. made his appearance at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, on September 20.

The proud, proud father is an accountant at Holgate Farms.

LITTLE MISS NORTH

There is joy and gladness in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley North of Hillsboro, dating from the September 12 birth of a daughter, weighing 8 pounds, 10 ounces.

The father is the good looking gent with the red hair who is serving his plumber apprenticeship at Clearwater's Shop, in Beaverton—now in this third year.

Beaverton Grade
School Buzzette
Takes New Style

The Buzzette, Beaverton grade school paper, made its initial appearance of the school year this week and contains news of new teachers and students in addition to class activities.

Lorraine Boles, the new editor, has injected a feminine note with a "Fads and Fashions" department. Writing the items in this section are Phyllis Mead and Elaine Hav-erluck who report that large pockets and jersey blouses are most popular among the younger set. They may have been the editors of the report on the cooks' new nylon uniforms, too.

Other students on the staff this year are: Harry Spence, Dennis Enger, Edward McIntyre, Jenny King, Hugh Eddy, Craig Cheshire, Jack Oberst, Duane Chaistie, Sue Barns, Doris C., Bob Bye, Jim Barnett, Elaine Sullivan, Ruth Rodgers, Duane Nelson, Caroline Hullings, Lucille Kirwan and Margaret Dreger.
