TRADE LANES

Kaye Porter, plans to open a new ladies apparel and men's clothing store at 1025 N. E. Canyon road, across from Haskell Shopping Center. It will go under the name of Porter's Outlet Clothing Center.

She plans her opening next Thursday, October 13.

Consistent with the established tradition of "Service to the Public", Don Walker of Walker's Department Store announced last week the new policy of lengthened store hours—9 a. m. to 9 p. m.—believing that this should enable everyone to visit the store at THEIR convenience.

In the announcement last week there was an opportunity for uncertainty. One of the lines in the ad sorta contradicted the other. 'Tis true though 9 to 9 prevails at Walker's.

J. J. McMahon left Saturday for a trip east to purchase from the factory a new Pontiac "8". Joe flew back. He is expected to be gone three weeks.

A telephone check of the Frozen Food Lockers in and around Beaverton brings up a total of 86 buck deer turned in as of 2:30 p. m. Wednesday. This looks to us like the local hunters are all crack shots.

We believe the record for distance traveled after a deer should go to Bill Pesenti of Ida and Bill's Market. Bill traveled all the way to Lakeview for his buck, and brought back a nice deer.

It was noticeable today that the baseball fans of Beaverton are not to be denied. We found several clerks and even a few of the bosses carrying on their work with one ear to the radio for the World Series.

 Jack Weiby has announced the formal grand opening of Weiby's

Store at their new location for October 14th and 15th. We know the occasion will be a memorable one in Beaverton.

SOMETHING MISSING?

Look that living room over! Is there something missing, something you can't put your finger on? You have a beautiful couch, inviting easy chair, expensive rugs and low tables... so what can it be?

The chances are ten to one it's the background. Just as "Stone wall do not a prison make", plain unattractive walls do little toward creating a truly beautiful room.

Here's a chance for you to use a lot of imagination and only a little money. That's all it took to create the livable, attractive room illustrated above.

Note how beautifully the drapes blend with the design of the wallpaper in the corner of the room and how the white wood paneling sets off the fireplace on the whole side of the room. A few pictures effectively placed complete the picture.

By doing a little thinking and careful planning, you'll be able to come up with something new and attractive in backgrounds. Try to be "different"... the result will please you.

If you need any help, stop in and see us. Our experience might be of help to you.
