His talk will include a description of the UNESCO program, its purpose and what it actually stands for. Everyone is extended a cordial invitation to attend.

Community Club Plans Shrubbery For School Yard

CEDAR MILL—Presiding at the community club meeting Wednesday evening at the school house was L. S. Uppinghouse, vice president in the absence of Mr. Al N. French, president. A party on November 19 will be strictly for entertainment of club members.

Reporting on receipts from the recent country fair given by the club, Mr. George Burke, treasurer announced a net profit of approximately $456.

A committee comprised of Mrs. W. A. Holley, Mrs. E. V. Love and Mrs. Al N. French was named to contact available sources for shrubbery and trees for school ground planting.

Named on the nominating committee to select nominees for offices for next year and to report at the next meeting were Mr. N. T. Stevens, Mrs. E. V. Love, Mr. Jack Merrill, Mr. Phil Thorne and Mrs. Jack Mutchler.

Entertainment was provided from colored film slides taken by L. W. Kingsley which he projected on the screen. Included were pictures taken at the summer club picnics, carnival and of the progress of the scout cabin which is a club project.

The orchestra of Leedy Grange members with Mr. Carl Breuchert directing furnished musical numbers.

Say "Malla Moe"

Address your letter to Malla Moe, S. Africa and she will get it. All S. Africa knows Malla Moe. In the first World War, Gen. Allenby had his troops salute as they marched by. And when this famous general had taken Jerusalem, he himself wrote Malla Moe and in longhand, to tell her how he did it.

And why is this woman, now 86, so honored? It is that all these years she has gone up and down S. Africa opening their darkened minds to the True Light—Jesus the Light of the World. Even more—When they saw her, they saw Christ the Lord who came to seek and to save that which is lost.

TURN TO THE LIGHT
— And may you also turn to the Light. Take your stand that Christ, the Eternal Son, died for all your sins. At that, God the Father gives you new birth into eternal life. Then, dark days or sunny, look utterly to Christ to power you. New days and new ways prove the new life.—I am come that they might have life—JESUS CHRIST, BIBLE, John 10:10.

888 S. W. McChesney Rd., Portland 1, Oregon. This space paid for by a Seattle family.

Beavert'n Grange Bazaar-Dinner

Beaverton Grange will hold a bazaar and serve a ham dinner Saturday, Oct. 22, in their hall, Front and Angel streets.

Aprons, tea towels, infants' clothing and candy will be sold, commencing at 3 p. m.

Dinner will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. The public is invited. Plans are under way for a series of card parties to commence in November.
