

YOU...an Interior Decorator

By Wm. LEE SIEBERTS

TEEN DREAM COME TRUE

Teentime is dream-time for that young daughter of yours. And you should do your best to provide her with an attractive room of her own to make those special dreams come true.

Of course in doing her room, be certain to consult her first, and follow her ideas about decorating as closely as possible. If she's inclined to be feminine and delicate, frills and bows and crystalline bottles are in order. If she's a tomboy, then it's bright plaids and bold colors.

Today we're concerned with the tomboy type room. Simply designed maple furniture goes well in this setting, and should include a double bed (there'll be overnight guests). Plenty of chairs are essential too, but bright-colored bolsters scattered about will easily solve the seating problem.

The illustration above shows the simple draping of colorful plaid... carried over to the undraped dressing table with its separate mirror framed in matching material. The easy chair is slipcovered in one of the dominant colors of the plaid... as are the lampshades, for the sake of accent. Cover the door with a large rag rug. And paint the walls in solid, darker tones. (The essential decor is in the plaid.)

Comfort and harmony are essential here, and above all the reflection of her own personality. Let us help you to make the most of your ideas. We're always glad of an opportunity to talk it over with you.

FIRST METHODIST PASTOR ARRIVED IN BEAVERTON, YEAR 1869

By Rev. Mark B. Lloyd

The beginning of Methodism in Beaverton dates back into the early history of the Oregon Territory. Rev. J. M. Canse in the Pacific Christian Advocate of March 14, 1917, wrote:

"The first campmeeting ever held among the Willamette settlers was held on the Tualatin Plains beginning July 12, 1843. There were but fourteen persons present the first day. To these Jason Lee preached from the text: 'Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.' On Sunday there were sixty at the campgrounds of whom one-third were not Christians. Yet so powerful was the influence over the careless that but four of these went away unconvinced."

Ten years later, March 17, 1853, Rev. J. W. Miller was appointed to the Tualatin and Chehalis circuit. The year 1869 Beaverton became a part of this circuit.

This is an important year in the history of Beaverton Methodism, for it was then that he received his first pastor, Rev. John Flinn. The congregation worshipped in the school house (located on the corner where the bank now stands.) In 1885 the church building was erected and dedicated in May of that year. Rev. Nelson Clark was the pastor at that time.

Since those early days, the First Methodist church has attempted to do her part in meeting the spiritual needs of the community with varying success. Twenty-three pastors have served the church from 1889 to the present date.

There have been periods of outstanding growth throughout the history of the church. The most important recent period is from June 1, 1945 to November 1, 1948, when the church was under the leadership of Rev. Everett Bowers. June 1, 1948, the membership reached 164. Over half of these united with the church during Mr. Bower's pastorate.

During the last conference year, June 1, 1948, to June 1, 1949, twenty-one new members united with the church. With losses that normally occur by death and by moving, the membership now is 174. November 1, 1948, the present pastor, Rev. Mark B. Lloyd, was appointed to the church. Several achievements have been accomplished during the past year. The basement has been redecorated and the kitchen re-floored.

The Sunday school has undergone quite a change in organization under the capable leadership of Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, Sr., as superintendent. A new primary department with Mrs. Hugh Carter as superintendent has been organized. Also, a new junior department, with Mrs. Nancy Bourquin as superintendent, has made a much more efficient church school for children of that age.

The Sunday school is endeavoring to teach the children the Word of God in order that it may lead them to Christ and to live the Christian life. Classes are organized for all ages.

The pastor, Rev. Mark B. Lloyd, has lived most of his life in the west. He is a native of the state of Colorado, but received his high school and college training in Idaho, graduating from the College

Church Women Meet Nov. 2 In Daytime Event

The Women's Fellowship of Bethel Congregational Church will hold its first daytime meeting of the year Wednesday, November 2 at 10:45 a. m.

Because of the all-church dinner the same evening, there will be no luncheon and the meeting will close at an early hour. A baby sitter will be provided.

Interest groups will be formed, and it is important that those attending bring "Pieces for Peace" which consists of 1 1/2 yd. of blue denim and any new materials or sewing equipment that can be used.

Parish Meeting Discusses Plans For New School

The Parish meeting sponsored by the Mothers' Club of St. Cecilia's Parish, the evening of October 20, was well attended. Main topic was building of a new parochial school for the children of Beaverton and vicinity.

Father Sniderhon is desirous of selling the property at the site of the old church and rectory in order to have funds to start the new project just as soon as possible. Father Sullivan of Portland answered many questions of those present.

After conclusion of the business meeting hot coffee and home made cake were served by the ladies.

There will be a similar meeting on Thursday evening Nov. 3 to which all members of the parish are expected to attend.

Witch at Church Of Christ Tells Party Schedules

Watch out the old witch is riding again, fascinating and enchanting the children and friends of the Beaverton Church of Christ, in a series of Halloween parties. Take note which one you should attend.

The first one will be up to and including the third grade and is to be held in the basement of the church, Saturday afternoon, October 29th, at 1:30 p. m. Come in costume and bring a pumpkin.

The second one will be for the fourth, fifth and sixth grades and will be in the new parsonage on Watson street, second house south of second street, on Monday evening, October 31st at seven o'clock.

The last one is for the senior C. E. society Sunday night after church at the parsonage. It will begin at about 8:45 and last until 11:00 p. m. Everyone from the 7th grade through high school is invited.
