CHICKEN POX LEADS DISEASES IN COUNTY

As of December 15, chicken pox was way ahead of other communicable diseases as reported by physicians in Washington county. Nine cases of pox were listed; 3 scarlet fever and 2 septic sore throats which might develop into scarlet fever; 3 whooping cough and one of mumps.

BUMPER TO BUMPER

Following a bus on Tualatin Valley highway, December 11, G. A. Nelson, of Empire, Oregon, driving a 1940 Chevrolet coupe, slammed on his brakes when the bus stopped in front of St. Mary's Boys school.

A. D. Revelle, of Portland, in a 1937 Lincoln, didn't fare so well in his stopping. He crashed bumper to bumper with the car ahead, bending the guard on the Chevrolet and suffering a cave-in on his own right front fender.

ANOTHER PROWLER ON CANYON RD. REPORTED

W. H. Baldwin, 9405 S. W. Canyon Road, reports his home was the victim of a house prowler on December 9. The break-in was made by getting a kitchen stool from the basement, standing on it to get into northwest bedroom through an unlocked window.

Baldwin arrived home at 9:15 and found hall light burning. Someone had gone through all the drawers and chests of the house, believed to have been between 5 p.m. and 8:45 p.m.

A set of foot prints were found outside the window, thought to have been made by a woman.

COUNTY AWARDS BIDS GAS, DIESEL, FUEL OIL

Washington county court announced last week award of bids on gasoline, fuel oil and diesel oil contracts for the coming year.

Eight bidders were represented. Shell, Richfield, General Petroleum, United Petroleum, Union, Standard, Louie Busch and Albina Fuel company submitted figures. Contract was let to Busch, of Forest Grove, for gasoline at 18.77 cents regular and 20.77 cents, ethyl and for diesel oil at 10.4 cents per gallon. Albina Fuel company of Portland, won the fuel oil contract with a bid of $1.80 per barrel.

SUSPICIOUS CALLS TO ELLIS AVE. RECEIVED

Dick Wagner, 277 N. E. Ellis avenue, Beaverton, received a phone call about 7 p.m., December 15. When he answered, the other party hung up without speaking. A similar call at 5 p.m. had been made two days earlier.

G. K. Signer, 556 N. E. Murray avenue, and others in the neighborhood have had the same experience. In the Canyon Crest area, where robberies have been reported, this same pattern of calling a home and not answering is believed part of an organized campaign.

VISITOR FROM SPOKANE

Mrs. May Doll, who has been a house guest at the Edward Sheets home on Farmington Road, has returned to the home of her sister, Mrs. Meisegeon, at Seaside. Mrs. Doll's home is in Spokane, Wash., and she is sister to Mrs. Sheets.
