By Mrs. M. O. Hubbell
COOPER MOUNTAIN—The Boy Scout Troop 297 of Cooper Mt. attended the Court of Honor at Hillsboro Dec. 15, where the following boys received their second class advancements:
Darrell Hendrickson, Manley Hubbell, Gary Miller, Rodney Blomquist and Clarence Mohr. Ivan Moon received merit badges for woodworking, art and home repair.

Many parents were present as guests of the troop which was awarded the advancement and parents trophy for December. A trade certificate of $2.50 from Wells Dept. Store for merit books for the most parents present.
Troop 297 invites all their friends to attend Court of Honor at Hillsboro, January 27.

DUTCH AUCTION

At the Dutch auction at Cooper Mt. School, Dec. 15, 44 attended and $32.30 cash was taken in. There were pillow cases, dish towels, sets of glasses, corsages, novelties and lots of items sold. A merry time was had in taking away another's items for a nickel.

To start the ball rolling, each gave 25 cents for a wrapped package, which was then unwrapped. Anyone wanting that item tossed a nickel in the pan and claimed said item.

The first person could toss in his nickel and reclaim said item. The other party could toss in his nickel and cancel out the first ones claim.

There were lively battles over some embroidered dish towels, a pocket knife, 2 pairs of pillow cases and a round woven rug. A time limit was set and who ever had the item in their possession at that time was the owner.

After the auction the crowd played musical chairs. Patty Hart and Christine Wold won this game. A game of pop the balloon was also played.
