

COMMUNITY CLUB CHRISTMAS PARTY ATTRACTS FULL HOUSE

By Mrs. Helen Hanson

Bonny Slope—On Thursday, December 22, the Bonny Slope Community club house was the scene of the annual Community Christmas Party.

The program that was given by the school children under the supervision of the grade school faculty played to a full house.

Old St. Nick himself was present distributing filled stockings to all the children of the district.

The treats were furnished as usual by the Bonny Slope PTA and the Bonny Slope Community club.

The gaily decorated tree was furnished by the school board.

FROM CANNON BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith of Cannon Beach, but formerly of the community were visitors here through the holidays.

REVISITS NEIGHBORHOOD

Paul Wilson of Portland was a visitor at the Jack Back home on Thompson road during the week between the holidays.

Paul formerly made his home with the Back family and attended Bonny Slope School. He is now a student at Benson Tech.

PRE-OREGON FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Johnson of the Dalles spent Christmas with

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Batke and Janice.

The two families were friends in North Dakota years ago before coming to Oregon.

TO JOB AT BLACKWOOD

Henry Barton and Amend Rainey returned to Blackwood, Idaho, where they are employed after spending the Christmas holidays with their parents here.

ROCKAWAY HOLIDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Frey of Thompson road motored to Rockaway, to spend Christmas Eve with their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Robert Proffitt and their two daughters, Elaine and

The Proffitt family resided for several years on Marcott road.

PEEK IN TILLAMOOK

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rainey and family accompanied by Henry Barton motored to Tillamook to spend Christmas Day with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLaughlin and family.

They had their first peek at their new grand-daughter Linda who is only three weeks old.

GUEST ON NEW YEARS

Miss Joanne Wittington of Portland was a New Years guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Steere on Thompson road.

FROM CRESWELL, OREGON

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hanson and two daughters of Creswell, Oregon spent Christmas Eve with their families here and in Portland.

Rose Boring

Services for Rose Boring, former Beaverton resident, were held at the Pegg Chapel, Beaverton, on Tuesday, Jan. 3rd, 1950.

The Rev. Mark B. Lloyd of the Methodist Church officiated. Interment was in the family plot in Crescent Grove Cemetery.

Miss Boring was a descendant of the family after whom the town of Boring, Oregon was named. She was born on August 4th, 1877 in Boring, Oregon. She had not lived in Beaverton for a number of years but was brought here for services and interment.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Nellie A. Mulligan of Portland and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Anna Boring McKenzie of Portland. Also a number of nieces and nephews.
