

HOLIDAY ILLNESSES

Illnesses were felt by many during the holiday season and just previously.

V. C. Miner was able to return home on Christmas Day after being hospitalized with pneumonia. Mrs. Miner is reportedly ill with the flu and their son with pneumonia.

Mrs. C. A. Henson returned home Christmas eve, following a major operation.

Mrs. A. Milan had been hospitalized with a throat infection and pneumonia.

CEDAR MILL GARDEN CLUB LUNCHEON WITH HOLIDAY MOTIF

By Mrs. Gertrude E. Pearson

CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON

A potluck Christmas luncheon was enjoyed by members of Cedar Mill garden club and their guests, Wednesday, December 21, at the grange hall. Evergreens, holly and candies decorated the tables.

During a short business meeting Mrs. Peter Hohnstein announced dates for a school on arrangements with Mrs. Harry Isom of Westside Garden club as instructor. First class will be February 16 to continue through March with the exception of the first Thursday in March. Classes will be of two hour duration from 10 a. m. to 12 noon in the L. S. Uppinghouse basement.

A gift exchange was held followed by a suggestion by Mrs. Louis Stark, bird chairman, that we make a Christmas tree for the birds. She had on display a sample tree.

Mrs. L. W. Kingsley and Mrs. E. V. Love demonstrated favors and gift wrapping with members joining in a workshop of gift wrapping.

Roses and their culture will be the topic for the program at the January meeting with Mrs. Jerry Hartshorn of the Beaverton Garden club as guest speaker.

SANTA AT XMAS PARTY

Santa was on hand to help with the children's Christmas party December 23 at the school. Gift exchanges were held in the various school rooms and each child received a gift of candy. Gifts were presented by the students to Mrs. Emma Nichol, cafeteria cook and N. P. Pearson, janitor.

Following luncheon in the cafeteria school was dismissed until Tuesday, January 3.

VISITS PARENTS

James A. Walters of Los Angeles, Calif., stopped over at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Walters Thursday and Friday enroute to Heppner, Oregon where he will join his wife and infant son. A special family dinner was held at the Walters home on Thursday evening in his honor.

HOME FROM SOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Roberts are at home on N. W. Cornell road following an extended business trip through the southern states. Most recent of their stops was Birmingham, Alabama.

HOLIDAY GUEST

A holiday guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Leedy, of Leahy road is their daughter, Patricia of Los Angeles. Miss Leedy has been employed in the California city in secretarial work for the past year.

GRANGE XMAS PARTY

Leedy Grange members and their families joined in a Christmas party Tuesday evening at the grange hall. A program with a Christmas theme was enjoyable.

4-H CHRISTMAS PARTY

4-H groups from Sunset Valley school held a Christmas party Monday, December 19 at the L. W. Kingsley home.

CORNELL CLUB

The Cornell club annual Xmas party and potluck luncheon was held Wednesday afternoon in the school cafeteria.

Gifts were exchanged and secret pals revealed. Names were exchanged for secret pals to be carried through this year.

GUESTS FROM YAKIMA

Guests during the holiday season of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mutchler have been Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith of Yakima, Washington. Mrs. Smith is a sister to Mrs. Mutchler.

Wm. McGrath

William Harold McGrath, retired S.P.&S. Ry trainman, of 3665 Blanton Avenue, Beaverton, passed away in his sleep in the early morning of January 3, 1950.

He had been in ill health for some time because of a heart ailment and had only been home from the hospital three weeks when he was taken so suddenly.

Mr. McGrath was a well known figure in Beaverton especially in Masonic and Eastern Star circles in his capacity of custodian of the Masonic Temple.

He is survived by his wife, Emma Belle McGrath of Beaverton and three children: Mrs. Lavelle Crum; Mrs. Rose Marie Duffield and Mrs. Ruth Edgell.

Funeral arrangements are still pending and will be announced by Pegg's Mortuary, Beaverton, when plans are completed.
