Now you Know!

The answers to everyday insurance problems*
By Leonard Adams

QUESTION: I have just gotten a new fur coat which, while not in the $10,000 class, still represents a sizeable investment for me. The furrier says I should have it insured against theft and I'd like to know how I can have it included in my regular theft policy.

ANSWER: It would be much better to have your coat insured under a special type of coverage called a Fur Floater rather than under your regular theft policy. The Fur Floater can protect you from loss due to accidental damage to the coat as well as loss due to theft. Your insurance agent can give you the full picture of how the policy can be adapted to your particular needs.

* If you will address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.
