

NEW WOMEN'S GROUP INVITES LARGE AREA FOR MEMBERSHIP

By Mrs. W. A. Bunnell
WEST SLOPE—Women of the area between Portland and Beaverton have been invited to take part in a pre-organization meeting to be held at Gabel school on the afternoon of Monday, January 16 at 2 o'clock, with the formation of a new women's club in mind, under the leadership of Mrs. Vernon Churchill, of S. W. Maple Drive.

Mrs. Churchill was active in the formation of the Broadmoor Women's Club last year. With this organization on its feet, she plans a club with much larger scope, promoting wider acquaintance among women of this area. Cards of invitation to take part in the club are being sent out to women of the community.

With the turn of the half century in mind, Mrs. Churchill has named the club the Century Club For Women. Several prominent speakers are being secured for the meetings.

Among them are Mr. Ralph Thom, of the Bank of California, who will speak on "Women in Finance," and Mrs. Joseph Minot, well known in women's activities for cultural efforts. It is also hoped to interest members of the Federated Clubs.

Mrs. Churchill has organized women's groups in many cities, including Chicago, and Berkeley, and has met a fine response to her latest move.

ORGAN RECITAL
Miss Beverly Armitage, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Armitage, who has been a pupil of Mrs. Nell Clark, organ teacher, for the past year, will give an organ recital at the Valley Community Church on Sunday, Jan. 29.

Mrs. Margaret Gollhur will sing two solos for the event, which will begin at 3 o'clock.

STEWARDSHIP STUDY
On last Sunday evening at the Valley Community United Presbyterian Church was held the first of a series of five weekly meetings including all ages, during which those attending will study the stewardship of Jesus.

Leaders will be H. M. Foster, Jack Feuerstein, Mrs. C. Bryan Walker, Mrs. R. W. Henry, and Rev. H. A. Armitage. Meetings will be held from 6:30 to 7:30 and refreshments and a social hour will follow the study period.

The series will conclude on February 5.

FUR WINDOW SETTINGS
Mrs. Wm. Mather designed and executed the window settings for the Ed Hamilton Furs windows in Portland, both for the holidays and a later grouping for the New Year, and has received much favorable comment on her work from interested firms who also plan on using her work.

Mrs. Mather was the subject of an article in Life magazine a few years ago, for her invention and execution of painted jeans for college girls.

PLAN ON MARDI GRAS
Mr. and Mrs. Otis Anderson returned Tuesday from San Francisco where they went to spend New Year's with friends. Their daughter, Georginne, remained at home with her grandmother while her parents were gone.

The Andersons plan to attend the Mardi Gras in New Orleans next month, making the trip from San Francisco by rail caravan.

STORK ANTICIPATION
Mrs. Garson Kane was hostess to fifteen ladies at her home Wednesday afternoon, at a stork shower for Mrs. Herbert Mason. Decorations and entertainment were in keeping with the theme of the day, and the hostess served a buffet luncheon to the guests. The honor guest received many lovely gifts.

Mrs. Kane, vice-president of the auxiliary of the Dental association will be hostess to the members of the group at her home on January 17. Around forty members are expected to attend.

CHICKEN POX VICTIM
Jeffrey Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Williams, is among the young sufferers from chicken pox, but is recuperating satisfactorily at his home.

ON FOURTH BIRTHDAY
Mrs. C. Fisher was hostess to a group of fifteen friends of varied ages on Sunday, to honor the fourth birthday of her daughter, Linda Lou.

Music and conversation were entertainment for the afternoon, and a large birthday cake formed the center of attraction for the luncheon served by the hostess.

BROKEN BONE HEALS
Mrs. Ivan Mulkey, who shattered an upper arm bone in her right arm in the early fall, in an accident at her home, has just had the cast removed, and she is again learning its use.

A failure to absorb the calcium used in her treatments was said to account for the delay in healing.

NEW YEAR AT BEACH
Mr. and Mrs. Milton Schoof were among a group of young people spending the New Year weekend at the beaches.

SCURRY FOR CANDLES
A ten minute power failure Sunday night about nine o'clock, sent West Slope residents scurrying for candles and flashlights, getting all set for a long, dark evening, just as the lights came on.

STOCKS AND BONDS
Mrs. Paul Mead has taken a position in Portland with the Pacific Northwest Stocks and Bonds Association.

THEATER PARTY

Young Mae Holeman was host at a birthday party at his home on the afternoon of December 31, the group enjoying a theater party in Beaverton, before returning to the Holeman home to partake of the birthday supper.

UNEXPECTED SNOW
Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Nessen of Sheffman Way spent the weekend at Cannon Beach. Young folks in the party were thrilled with the unexpected snow which fell there. Haystack Rock was said to be a picturesque sight, covered with snow.

CAVALCADE OF CARS
Women of the Missionary Society of the Valley Community United Church were invited to hold a meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shafer at their new home near Six Corners, on Wednesday of this week. About twenty ladies planned to attend, going out in a cavalcade of cars.

Leaders of the meeting will be Mrs. W. A. Walters and Mrs. A. O. Lodahl. Hostesses are Mrs. Shafer and Mrs. Ben Eddy.

VENTURE IN MADRAS
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hockett, former West Slope residents spent the holidays here with friends, and have returned to their home near Madras, Oregon, where they went sometime ago, to live on a large ranch in the newly opened irrigation project there.

The Hockett daughters, Anita and Linda, remained with friends at Castle Rock.

SECOND BOOK REVIEW
Mrs. Anna Stulman, who gave a successful book review on the "Mudlark" at Gabel school several weeks ago, will conduct the second of the series of a planned four, in the library of the school, January 17, beginning at 1 p. m.

Dessert and coffee will precede the review on "The Plum Tree" by Mary Ellen Chase, and Mrs. Stulman will also tell the story of the Trapp family, famous singers.

CHANGE IN FAMILY HQ'S
Mr. and Mrs. H. Q. Cox, former residents of West Slope, have moved to Minor Terrace, after selling their property to Mr. and Mrs. Gene Reed, who have been making their home in an apartment on Canyon road.

CATHY MAUREEN RICK
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rick, former West Slope residents, announce the birth of a daughter, Cathy Maureen, at Portland Sanitarium, on Jan. 5. The baby weighed 7 pounds, 10 ounces, and has an older sister, Sharon, aged 2½.

FLYING VISITATION
The Misses Nadine and Virginia Bunnell left Thursday for New York, after two weeks spent here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bunnell, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mattoon.

The sisters will sing in a New York theater Jan. 11, after which they will take a two weeks engagement in Montreal, Canada.

While here they flew to Medford for an engagement and were forced by the bad weather to stay over an extra night before returning home.

VISITORS DEPART
Holiday visitors are still making their departure from local homes, many remaining till after the New Year.

Among those leaving earlier in the season after stays here for the Christmas holiday, were Mr. and Mrs. Ed May, of Pine Bluff, Nebraska, who visited the Carl Gestring's, and Mrs. Gestring's mother, Mrs. Harriet Francis. The Mays left for California, where they will visit further, before returning to their home.

Other holiday guests of the family were Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Kolocek and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kempkhorn and son Toby, of Portland.

ONE UP; ONE DOWN
Miss Joan Matthews, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Matthews, has been suffering from chicken pox, but is getting along well. Her sister, Jackie, who spent Christmas in bed with the ailment, has recovered and gone back to school.

HOUSE GUESTS
Dr. and Mrs. Garson Kane have had as house guest since the holidays, his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Kane of Lewiston, Idaho, who leaves for home Saturday.

Mrs. Kane's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Madden, also of Lewiston, was a house guest for a few days during the holidays. She went home and then returned to the Kane home Sunday with her daughter, who was making a return trip to Mills college in Berkeley, Mrs. Madden departed for Lewiston Sunday night.

Fifteen members of families of both Dr. and Mrs. Kane were entertained in the Kane's new home at Christmas, among them, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson, of Seattle.

Dairy Committee Considers County Program For '50

Meeting January 5 in the office of Palmer Torvend, county agricultural agent at Hillsboro, members of the Dairy Planning Committee discussed the future of the industry and considered program features for 1950. Present were representatives of the Dairy Herd Improvement association, purebred associations and the Washington County Dairy Breeders association.

Two or three tours were recommended for the purpose of observing practices of other dairymen in the county, particularly as regards pastures, liquid manure tank use, grass silage, milking barns and parlors and other improved methods.

H. P. Ewalt, of Oregon State College, discussed the future outlook for dairymen producing liquid milk. He declared that prospects were reasonably good but said that use of improvement practices is imperative.

The committee agreed that a demand of services justifies a third DHIA tester for the county. The group also reviewed the past year's program in cooperation with the

Entertaining In Holiday Season Notes Busy Time

Entertaining in the holiday season, Fred and Agnes Hart, 906 S. E. Lombard, Beaverton, enjoyed a busy time with friends and family.

On Christmas Eve, a real family night was observed. At the last count before the occasion ended, there were twelve grown-ups and the same number of grandchildren who took part in the giving and receiving of gifts. Refreshments, of course, were served.

On Christmas day, the Harts seniors visited the home of their children in Portland, ending up with dinner at the home of the Fred Harts juniors.

During the week between Christmas and New Year's Day, Agnes entertained the members of her arts and hobby club, on Wednesday evening. Those present were Mesdames William Walsh, Wilbur Sexton, Harold Erwin, Paul Knepp, Fred Ericson, Art Byrne, W. J. Kain and L. A. Wells. After a social gab-fest and work on various projects, refreshments wound up the evening.

On Thursday afternoon, neighbors were invited in for coffee and Christmas goodies. Enjoying the occasion were Mrs. Carl Olson, Mrs. Bill Hansen, Mrs. C. Ely, Mrs. I. R. Metzler, Mrs. Bill Kent and Mrs. J. Conoly. Stars of the event were babies Loretta Olsen and Dickie Ely, who came in for much admiration.

For New Year's Eve, the house was appropriately decorated. Music, dancing, singing and fun aplenty featured the program. Snacks and punch were served during the evening.

When 1950 moved timidly in, hats and noise-makers were distributed to add to the merry confusion. Food and coffee followed in quick order, after which were more songs and dancing.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chenoweth, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ramsdell, Mr. and Mrs. David Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dorsey, Mr. and Mrs. James Truax, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Mead, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Koppang, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fuller and daughter Sharon. A tape recording of the evening was made and played back.

Staying overnight and New Year's Day were Mr. and Mrs. Wedding, Mrs. Hart's sister and her husband.

Kate Leahy

Requiem mass was offered at St. Cecilia Catholic Church, Beaverton, for Mrs. Kate Leahy of 9309 N. W. Leahy road, Portland, on Wednesday, Jan. 11th. The Rev. G. M. Snideron officiated. Vault interment was in Union Cemetery. Recitation of the rosary was at the Pegg Chapel, Beaverton at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Leahy was born on July 6, 1868 in Burson, California. She had lived in Cedar Mill for the past fifty-three years and is survived by six children: Mrs. Marie DeYoung, 9309 N. W. Leahy road, Portland; Mrs. Maud Murphy, 2908 S. E. Boyd St., Milwaukie, Ore.; Lillian Leahy of San Francisco, Calif.; Mrs. Alice Wilkinson of San Francisco, Calif.; Frank Leahy of San Francisco, Calif. and George Leahy of Portland, Ore.

Fourteen grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren also survive.

SEASIDE VISIT
Ray Rossi was a Seaside visitor, on Sunday and called on the Beach's family, formerly of Beach's market and recently moved to Seaside, who were very happy to see some of their Beaverton neighbors.
