

CLUB HITS PROPOSED ROUTING OF BUS TO EXCLUDE ONE AREA

By Gertrude Pearson

CEDAR MILL — Major issue brought up at the Cedar Mill community club meeting Wednesday evening at the school was the proposed rerouting of the bus service over Leahy road which would exclude residents along Cornell road between Skyline boulevard and Leahy road. The bus company will be consulted to see if the service can be satisfactorily worked out for both areas.

A resolution to the Portland city council protesting the proposed $25 tax on non-residents employed in Portland will be proposed in a letter to the mayor and council.

Reports of committee chairman for the past year were heard. Installation of new officers was held with Frank R. Young as installing officer.

Installed were, L. S. Uppinghouse, president; V. C. Miner, vice president; Mrs. Jack Merrill, secretary and Mrs. L. W. Kingsley, treasurer.

Committee chairman for the coming year were named as follows: Membership, Jack Merrill; publicity, Mrs. V. C. Miner; house, Clifford Martin; civic and industry, W. A. Holley; reception, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Stevens; commissary, Mrs. Lloyd Woodell; ways and means, E. V. Love and program, A. R. Pearson.

Special committees include, the park planning committee with F. W. Merewether as chairman and legislative committee with Mrs. A. R. Pearson as chairman.

A proposal was made to cooperate in foundation planting of shrubbery at Sunset Valley school pending investigation on the district's wishes.

Films were shown by Ed. Roller of Eastman Kodak Co., for entertainment. A social hour with refreshments concluded the evening.

The community club has completed a successful ten years since it was founded and invites residents of the area to participate in its purpose of establishing good feeling between community residents and promoting projects for community improvement.

THE LATER YEARS

"Foundations for Living the Later Years" will be considered in a panel discussion by members at the PTA meeting, Thursday, January 26, at 8 p. m., at the school house.

FORMAL CLUB PARTY

A formal dinner party Friday evening was given by the retiring executive board members of Community club in honor of the retired president, Al N. French at the French home. The dinner was furnished cooperatively.

SEX FILM FOR SCHOOL

This film "Human Growth" was shown by Rev. William Genne, chaplain of Pacific University, Monday evening at the school to interested persons.

Following discussion of the film by Rev. Genne and persons present, it was agreed that it would be advantageous for schoolroom use. Teachers in the upper grade rooms will present preliminary instruction which is already included in the course of study previous to showing the film.

"Human Growth" was filmed for the E. C. Brown Trust at the Oregon Medical School. It has been previewed by parent groups throughout the state and approved by the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, the state board of education and other agencies interested in education.

SCHOOL MASS MEETING

Special attention is called to voters of the Cedar Mill school district concerning a mass meeting scheduled for Wednesday night, January 25 at the school to discuss the proposed building of a gymnasium at the school. All residents are invited to share in the discussion. Competent persons will be present to answer questions arising.

Voting on the proposed bonds for the gymnasium will be held at the schoolhouse between the hours of 2 and 8 p. m., February 1.

MILESTONE TWENTY-TWO

Cornell club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. James Walters. It was brought to the attention of the members that Mrs. Walters had been the first hostess of the club in December, 1922, thus the club has been meeting for 25 years.

One of the older club members Mrs. Rose Sheldon who celebrated her 80th birthday January 14 was honored by the club with a shower of 80 dimes to be presented to her on her birthday.

Next hostess for the club will be Mrs. Arthur Bauer on January 25.

POSTPONED BY SNOW

Plans for a show at the school house Friday evening were abandoned when snow driven by a wind of blizzard force made weather unsuitable.

School was dismissed on Friday, also due to weather conditions.

DAUGHTER'S ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fleskes are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Winifred Aileen, to Mitchell Lalich, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Lalich of Portland.

The news was told at the annual Christmas family party held this year at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fleskes of Oswego.

The wedding will take place in the early spring.

BIRTHDAY HONORS

A dinner party Sunday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hempy at their home honored the birthday of Mrs. James Walters. A group of friends were included.

NEW BUS SCHEDULE

Effective Monday, January 16, Tualatin Valley Stages announce a new schedule and rerouting of buses over Leahy road. The new route calls for travel from Portland on West Burnside, thence on Barnes road to Leahy road, across Leahy road to Cornell continuing west on Cornell on the previous route.

Schedule may be obtained from the driver or at Trailways depot in Portland.

CEDAR MILL JUNIORS

The meeting of the Juniors and Junior Reserves of Cedar Mill local was postponed from Saturday, January 14 to Saturday January 21, because of the snow storm.

It will be held at Barnes school on Walker road from 1 to 4 p. m.

Children Expert Presents Special Church Program

CEDAR MILL—Rev. Edward J. Bateman, Minister of Education of the Fuller Foundation, a member of the national conference of juvenile agencies, and a member of the national chaplain's association will be the special speaker at the Cedar Mill Community Church, 12208 N. W. Cornell Road, Sunday, January 29th, through Sunday, February 5th, every night from 7 to 8:15 p. m.

Mr. Bateman's ministry is for the entire family, though he is nationally known as a children's worker and chaplain to children's institutions.

His program deals with Gospel Magic, Object Lessons, Chalk Talks Illustrated Bible Stories and Choruses.

Come! See! Hear! You'll find it to be a program just for you and your family, declares Rev. Simon E. Forsberg, Minister.

Mrs. Kate Leahy

CEDAR MILL—Mrs. Kate Leahy late of 9309 N. W. Leahy Road passed away Sunday, January 8, at the family home at the age of 81 years. She was born in Burton, California, moving to the Cedar Mill area about 54 years ago, following her marriage to Mr. Leahy and lived in the same location on Leahy Road until her death.

Surviving are daughters: Mrs. Marie DeYoung and Mrs. Maud Murphy of Portland; Mrs. Alice Wilkinson and Lillian Leahy of San Francisco, California, sons: George of Portland and Frank of San Francisco. Fourteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren also survive.

FALLS FRIDAY 13TH

Mrs. A. M. Byrd of 1st st., had the misfortune to fall on Friday the 13th and break her arm.

Proclamation

Greetings: Whereas, the Salvation Army Men's Social Service Center is engaged in the work of rehabilitation with men who have lost their social footing, and,

Whereas, this said work of rehabilitation is dependent upon salvaged materials from the homes of donors to operate, and,

Whereas, the City of Beaverton, through its City Officials, desires to proclaim a clean up week in connection with its fire prevention program, be it now,

Resolved that the Officials of Beaverton desiring to cooperate with the Salvation Army clean up program, and, I as Mayor of this incorporated community, do hereby proclaim the week starting, Monday, January 23rd 1950 as our official clean up salvage week.

I hereby officially affix my signature, H. H. Jeffries, Mayor of Beaverton, Oregon. Dated January 17, 1950.

Study Group Of Church Chooses Japan For Topic

"Japan of Today" is the current topic chosen by the study group of the Women's Fellowship of the Bethel Congregational Church. The group met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Roy Manges.

Next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, January 26, at the home of Mrs. M. H. Metcalfe, on S. W. Watson. All interested women are invited to attend and participate in the discussions.

The invitation asks ladies attending to bring sandwiches. Meeting time is 12:30.

RETURNS TO HOME

"Dick" Best, who underwent an appendix operation at the Jones hospital in Hillsboro recently, returned to his home on Lombard street Thursday of last week.

Methodists Set Next Family Day Feb. 18, Morning

Success of the first Family Day event at the Beaverton Methodist Church, January 15, has led to rising anticipation in the congregation for the next such date scheduled February 18.

The celebration included a potluck after the morning worship and some 60 were present January 15.

Young people of the choir presented a varied and somewhat impromptu program. The group divided itself into quartets, trios and duets, as well as singing together.

All Methodists of the vicinity are invited to attend the Family Day functions, which will be held on the third Sunday of each month.

Power Failure Brings Calls To Company Office

By Mrs. M. O. Hubbell

COOPER MOUNTAIN: — The light company received a flood of phone calls last week as all the homes on Cooper Mountain were affected by the power shortage.

The home of Wes Bany, on Bany Road, was particularly hard hit. A wire fell across the line there and burnt out the transformer. A high voltage wire fell across the line near Huber which was the cause of the trouble that spread throughout the Aloha-Huber area.

DAUGHTER AIDS MOTHER

Mrs. May Pizer, of Seattle, has been travelling the distance between her home and Cooper Mountain each week, to stay with her mother, Mrs. Lena Bany, who is still unable to help herself.
