

HAPPY HOUR LADIES ARRANGE DATE TO ENTERTAIN HUBBIES

By Mrs. Gladys Hesterlee

HAZELDALE - COOPER MTN:—Hazel Dale Happy Hour Club met Feb. 9, for an evening meeting at the home of Mrs. M. W. Gamrath. Seventeen members and five visitors were present.

The club voted ten dollars to the March of Dimes.

Plans were completed for the husbands dinner which is scheduled for Feb. 18, 7 p.m.

After the business meeting, gifts were presented to Mrs. Bob Webb for the baby to be. She received lots of useful and beautiful gifts. Mrs. Gamrath served ice cream and cake decorated with a stork and all the trimmings.

Other guests were: Mrs. R. J. Smurthwaite, Jr., Mrs. Ruth Griffiths, Mrs. McCrow, Mrs. John DeLand, and the honored guest, Mrs. Webb.

The next regular meeting will be Feb. 23, with Mrs. Lily Garvin. This will be a date meeting, with pot luck at noon.

The quilt blocks should all be in at this meeting.

LADIES' ALL DAY EVENT

The Women's Missionary Society of the Hazel Dale Bible Church will meet Feb. 24, for an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Gladys Hesterlee.

There will be new officers elected. Mrs. Joe Mitchell will be co-hostess.

Every one is welcome.

ST. VALENTINE MOTIF

The young folk from the Hazel Dale Bible Church held a Valentine party Feb. 13 at the home of Christine Hesterlee with about 20 present. Rev. Joe Mitchell was also present.

They played games to which prizes were awarded after which they exchanged valentines.

Refreshments were served in keeping with St. Valentine Day.

SCHOOL KEYS RETURNED

Supt. R. C. Doty, of the Hazel Dale Bible Church Sunday School, recently returned to the school board the keys to the school building in which the Sunday School has met continuously since its organization in 1934.

Services of the church and Sunday School have been held in the basement of the new church, on Farmington Road at Hazel Dale, for several weeks now.

Broadmoor Club Adds Eighteen To Broaden Scope

Eighteen new members of the Broadmoor Women's Club were feted with Valentine flower nosegays as their entry of welcome into the Club, Thursday, February 9th.

This ceremony, held at the Gabel Country Day School, was by way of making history, as fourteen of the women are the first members taken into the Club outside of the Broadmoor District. This is in accordance with the new move to enlarge the Club's membership to include residents of the West Slope area.

The new members include Mrs. Thomas Blair, Mrs. Kasper P. Caveny, Mrs. Veri Emmons, Mrs. William Kempthorn, Mrs. Amos Lawrence, Mrs. Allen Patterson, Mrs. Fred Robertson, Mrs. Ruben Rutten, Mrs. Bernard Shaffer, Mrs. Norman Sheldon, Mrs. A. C. Stickley, Mrs. John Taggart, Mrs. J. Freeman Young, and Mrs. Edwin Zumwalt.

The remaining new members are residents of Broadmoor, and include Mrs. J. Paul Doughty, Mrs. A. L. Fox, Mrs. E. C. Holland, and Mrs. David C. Myer.

An interesting discussion concerning national federation of clubs was given by Mrs. William Chandlee; while another noted guest was Mrs. Charles Bonnell, Society Editor for the Hillsboro Argus.

The hostesses for the day, Mrs. Richard Lange, Mrs. Ira Holcomb, and Mrs. Gunnar Holmberg presented a most attractive table setting of white snapdragons and valentine hearts for the tea table. Pouring were: Mrs. Clarence Parker and Mrs. Glenn Hopkins.

Mrs. John Orr, the club president, read a report on "Friends of the Library" which was given at a recent meeting on the subject, headed by Dr. K. P. Caveny. Mrs. Orr also reported on the picture shown at the Valley Community church which depicted the work of the Bookmobile in Canada.

Plans were also made by the Club for an entertainment for the husbands of the members to be held at the George Mallory hall on the evening of Feb. 23. New members were honored at tea following the close of the meeting and each was presented with a red carnation. The Valentine theme was used for decorations and refreshments.

Presentation Of Bible Prophecy Dated Feb. 19th

Colored moving pictures to demonstrate the Bible prediction of a coming World Kingdom will be featured at the Seventh-Day Adventist church, Fifth and Angel, Beaverton, on Sunday evening, February 19, at 7:30.

The church also announces, in response to requests of many friends in the community to visit the church upon its completion, that C. J. Ritchie, newly returned

William Sands

Services for Mrs. Nora C. Johnson of Sherwood, Oregon, were held at The Friends Church in Sherwood, on Wednesday, Feb. 15, at 2 p.m., with the Rev. Kenneth Williams officiating. Vault interment was in the Middleton Cemetery at Sherwood.

Mrs. Johnson was born on April 17, 1874, in Missouri. She was married to Charles Shoop there and in 1900 he was killed in a cyclone. She moved to Sherwood in 1913 and on April 17, 1914, she was married to Eben W. Johnson of Sherwood. He passed away in October of 1942. Except for a five year period in which she lived in Portland, Mrs. Johnson resided in Sherwood up to her last illness.

She is survived by three sons: Floyd C. Shoop, of Sherwood; Ivan W. Johnson, of Portland; and Harold V. Johnson, of Beaverton. Six grandchildren: Wesley W. Johnson, Jean Johnson, Cheryl A. Johnson, Thomas Shoop, Judith Nora Shoop and MaryJo Shoop. Four brothers: W. P. Fisk, of Sherwood; E. M. Fisk, of Kansas; John R. Fisk, of Kansas; and Fred Fisk, of Kansas.

She was a charter member of the Rainbow Lodge, Rebecca's at Sherwood. Peg's Mortuary, Beaverton, was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

COMMUNITY CLUB WORKS WITH ANOTHER GROUP ON BUS NEED

By Mrs. Gertrude Pearson

Kenneth Skeels and Gary Pearson, scouts of troop 207, presented colors to open the Community Club meeting Wednesday evening at the schoolhouse.

Preceding the business meeting was a program of songs by a quartet from Beaverton High School. Harmony of voices was a credit to Bob Bryant, Burton Gredvig, Douglas Graf and Bob Saunders, who comprised the quartet.

Friday, February 24, was decided for the night of a theatre party, which will pay off a debt by the men for a membership contest held several months ago. Arthur Pearson, and Claude Cover were named representatives to attend the Tualatin View Community Club meeting to bring interests of this area concerning bus service before officials of Tualatin Valley Stages, Inc.

Presentation of troop charters for Boy Scout Troop 207 and Cub Pack 207 were presented as well as individual membership cards for leaders and committeemen.

Conducting the meeting was V. C. Miner, vice-president, in the absence of L. L. Uppinghouse, of broken leg fame.

NIX SOCIAL MEDICOS

Socialized medicine was under discussion at the PTA Study club meeting Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Stevens. Mr. and Mrs. S. Maxwell Stevens were host and hostess for the evening.

In general the group favored a medical plan but not under government control. State plans were suggested as being more beneficial.

CORNELL CLUB PARTY

A Valentine Party lent a festive air to the Cornell Club meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. P. Clark.

No meeting will be held on February 22, the next regular date, in cooperation with the PTA luncheon at which many will be guests. Mrs. N. T. Stevens will be hostess to the Club on March 8.

PLAYGROUND SAFETY

A program on safety on the Playground will be presented by school children for members of the PTA at the next regular meeting, February 23, at 2:30 p.m. On the same program will be an observance of Founders' Day.

PTA RUMMAGE EVENT

All donations to the PTA Rummage Sale to be held February 24 should be left at the school or the homes of Mrs. L. Uppinghouse, Mrs. A. R. Pearson or Mrs. A. A. Moore before February 20.

Articles included in homes from basement to attic will lend themselves for the sale.

FASHION LUNCHEON

Pre-sale of tickets for the luncheon and style review, Feb. 22, is being handled by PTA members.

Spring fashions by the Fashion House from Blandings Dream House will be reviewed.
