SOUTH AFRICA MISSIONARIES TELL CHRISTMAS MAKE SHIFT

By Mrs. W. A. Bunnell

WEST SLOPE — Recent word from the Douglas Taylors, medical missionaries in South Africa to Rev. George Taylor, the father of "Doug" as he is known here, tells of the Christmas celebration of the small group of missionaries and their co-workers in their remote location in Zululand.

A tree was manufactured of branches and paper streamers and decorated. An exchange of gifts was held for the twelve persons in the group.

A number of ulu girls, trained to wait table and dressed in specially made uniforms, took part in the celebration.

The letter also stated that water takes, to catch rain water, had been placed and are being used. The season there, now, is mid-summer but this year has been quite rainy and a nice garden was started. The gardens, however, met disaster from the slugs that moved in and destroyed the plants.

"Doug" also reported that he had been granted permission by the government to operate in the adjacent state.

HIGH SCHOOL SET

Donald Peck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norton Peck, was host to a group of young friends from his high school class of Sunday school on Saturday evening. The young folks enjoyed games and music and later made their own refreshments by frying doughnuts.

PROPERTY TRANSFER

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Viar have sold their property near Raleigh Hills to Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Myers of Klamath Falls, and will purchase a new home in the vicinity of West Slope.

Mrs. Myers is a sister of W. A. Bunnell of West Slope. The couple with their daughter, Mrs. Marvin Brown of Alturas, Calif., spent the week end here.

They left Monday for Klamath Falls and will return here to make their home as soon as the Viars are located in a new place.

TRIP TO CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Geer returned the last of the week from a two weeks trip to California.

BROTHER'S HOUSE GUEST

Dewey Getchell, of Great Falls, Montana, is a house guest at the home of his brother, Glenn Getchell, for an indefinite time.

SPRING IN EVIDENCE

Residents of this section are discovering that shrubs and flowers are not as badly damaged by the cold weather as first thought. Daffodils, jonquils and other bulbs are well above the ground.

A few venturesome early-planted sweet peas are also reported, and pussywillows are very much in evidence.

MOVE TO APARTMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mayfield have moved from their former home on the Killam property to an apartment in the Spaulding building.

JOHN WILLIAM GUMM

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gumm are rejoicing in the birth of their first grandchild, a son born February 6, at Emanuel hospital to Dr. and Mrs. Melvin Gumm.

Dr. Gumm brought his wife from their home in Redding for the birth of the baby, and Mrs. Gumm and the little boy plan to return home early this week.

The baby has been named John William, and weighed seven pounds, one ounce.

T AND T SOCIAL CLUB

Mrs. Helen Spencer was hostess to the members of the T and T Club at her home last Wednesday evening.

Valentine decorations and menu followed the theme of the day, and a social evening was enjoyed by the group.
