GIVE THE PERSON YOU ARE TELEPHONING TIME TO ANSWER

Wait
at Least
10 Rings

Very often the person you are telephoning cannot drop everything to answer the telephone. So, when telephoning, it's a wise policy to wait a minute—that's ten rings—before hanging up.

This gives the person you are calling a reasonable time to answer. You'll also be likely to complete a lot more telephone calls this way. And your consideration will help us to serve everyone more efficiently by cutting down the number of "incomplete" calls. So always wait 10 rings—won't you, please?

Now you Know!

The answers to everyday insurance problems*
By Leonard Adams

QUESTION: In trying to get my car a little closer to the wall of my garage, I split the door frame. I can't find anything in my property damage insurance policy which covers this situation. Can you tell me if the insurance company should pay for the damage?

ANSWER: No, the property damage policy pays only for damage to the property of others—never the property of the insured person.

* If you will address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.

Insurance Runs Out For Vets Of 1942; Renewable

Veterans who took out National Service Life Insurance in 1942 are reminded by the Veterans Administration that they must convert or renew their present policies this year, before they expire. Failure of veterans to do so may result in the loss of their G.I. insurance, unless they are able to pass a physical examination.

G.I. policies issued in 1942 have eight years to run before they must be converted or renewed, and veterans must apply for their new policies before the old ones run out.

Many veterans, the VA said, are not sure when they first took out their N.S.L.I. policies and needlessly take the risk of losing their insurance protection because they don't know when their policies should be renewed.

Even though the VA will try to notify the veteran 60 days ahead of time before the expiration date of his G.I. insurance policy, it is wise for him to check with the VA to determine the anniversary date of his insurance policy if he isn't sure.

Approximately one-third of the half-million veterans in the Pacific Northwest who have G.I. insurance pay their premiums during the 31-day "grace period." They, too, face the loss of their insurance when it expires, because it may no longer be in force when they get around to making application for a converted policy or a renewal.

The VA advised veterans to pay their premiums on time and depend on the "grace period" only in cases of real financial emergency.
