

CLUB PIE SOCIAL PROVES BIG SUCCESS; INCREASES TREASURY

By Mrs. M. O. Hubbell

Cooper Mountain school was ablaze with lights and happy laughter and music rang out on Friday, March 17, at an occasion of merry-making.

The pie social was a success and $20.30 was added to the funds of the club. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wiehl of Portland furnished the dance music, with a loud speaker and their electric phonograph.

The school children enjoyed a dance that was played especially for them. All pies were sold and free coffee was served. Sixty-nine were present, no one was fined 10 cents as every one wore something green. Soda pop was sold to the children for 5 cents.

After eating quite a few helped wash dishes and dancing continued. Cards were enjoyed by some who did not dance.

NEW GIRL SCOUT TROOP

At last Cooper Mountain lassies have a girl scout troop organized with Mrs. Audra Shobold as scout leader and Mrs. Price her assistant.

The troop consists of Barbara Altig, president; Mary Lee Hart, secretary; Veronica Moore, treasurer; Ellen Wold, Ellen Clausen, Judy Roycroft, Anna Jean Savage, Shirley Savage, Sharon Savage, Kathleen Moore, Charlene Redding and Patty Hart.

All parents and the Cooper Mt. community club are also rooting for the success of both the boy and girl scout movements in the community.

County Fair Bd. Sets Search For Queen of Harvest

Harry Schmeltzer, Route 3, Sherwood, member of the Washington county fair board since 1939, was elected president of the organization at a meeting held Monday night in Hillsboro.

Also named as board officers were: A. H. "Tony" Abts, vice president; Elmer Guerber, treasurer; and Mrs. Goldie M. Davis, secretary. Leon S. Davis will serve as manager of the fair for another year.

The board authorized Davis to begin at once in setting up a contest for Harvest Queen, of the fair, limiting entries in the contest to a minimum of five girls and a maximum of six. The candidates should be representative of various sections of the county, the board ruled.

Dates for the fair will be August 30, 31, September 1 and 2. Since the fair is faced with a continuing rise in expenses, the manager was instructed to keep expenses within the budget and to charge the same admission for each day, whether by single admission or season ticket.
