Scout Troop Stages Social For Jamboree Trip Expense

By Mrs. W. A. Bunnell

WEST SLOPE—The Boy Scout Troop sponsored by the Valley Community United Presbyterian Church will hold a program and box social at the church on the evening of April 21, using the funds to help defray the expenses of a scout to be sent to the Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge in June. George Pickard is in charge of the event, and has issued an invitation to the general public to attend.

It is hoped that a professional auctioneer can be secured to sell the boxes which may be decorated in any way the maker pleases. The evening is the church's contribution as one of four money-raising projects planned by the troop. A number of mothers of the scouts held a rummage sale this week, and a talent program is planned for early May.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Myers, who recently moved to this section from Klamath Falls were hosts at a family reunion at their home for Easter Sunday.

A. Bunnell of West Slope, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Coon of Portland.

School Present Hilarious Play Apr. 22 Carnival

SUNSET VALLEY SCHOOL—A hilarious one act comedy play, "Quiet Home Wedding", under the direction of Mrs. Frank Jeffries will be enacted by local talent April 22 in conjunction with a carnival and entertainment evening at Sunset Valley School.

Several musical numbers are planned plus many carnival events such as a food bar, games of skill, country store, white elephant auction, fortune telling and fish pond. Mrs. Gordon Ingram, chairman of the carnival issues an invitation for all to attend the event beginning at 8 p. m.

Proceeds from the evening will be used to purchase chairs for Sunset Valley School.

CO. WEEDS HAVE ONE WEEK BEFORE ACTION

Because such notice must be published for two weeks before enactment, weeds of Washington county have one more week to be uncontrolled, according to county judge, Herman D. Kerkman.

Last week, there was a county-wide public hearing which unanimously voted for establishment of a county weed control district. Anticipation was that the court could so order the set-up on once.

Kerkman relates that in the latter part of next week, the district will be established.

For the weeds, it gives them one more week before they, too, come under the stern surveillance of the law.
