REASON FOR SMILE

There's a reason for the broad smile on the face of Henry Mangiantini, 2425 Denny road, Beaverton, as he goes about his banking business in the First National Bank of Hillsboro. And that reason is a little bundle of a girl, Angela Dolores, who weighed in at Jones hospital March 29 at five pounds fifteen ounces.

She and her mother have returned home by now but every day is a new adventure for Henry. She's the Mangiantini's first and she is fast educating her parents on the joys to be.

Grandparents are Mrs. James Ross, of Billings, Montana, who is visiting "to help out", and Mr. and Mrs. P. Mangiantini, of Portland.
