Dead Girl Raised

By Geo. N. Taylor

The 12-year old daughter of Jairus is dead and the mourners laugh Jesus to scorn when He tells them the girl is not dead but only sleeping. Then Jesus took her by the hand and called—'I say to you Arise. At that she arose and walked and Christ told them to give her food.—BIBLE, Luke 8:41-56.

To Raise Us Also — So came Christ the Creator and Upholder of the Universe. Christ who gives us day and night, seed-time and harvest and who is to raise up into eternal glory all who lay hold on Him as their own Lord and Saviour. Let them possess Christ as Geo. N. Taylor having taken their sins and become sin in their place and who tasted the anguish of hell to the full for them—Isa. 53:11. Yes, Christ died for us but being the eternal God, death and the grave could not hold Him—"But now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first-fruits of them that slept"—1st Cor. 15:20. Would you have new days for here and now and also Resurrection glory?—"Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and be saved"—Acts 16:31.

New Act Gives Added Benefits To War II Vets

World War II veterans will find their home loan benefits greatly enhanced by provisions of the Housing Act of 1950, recently signed into law by the President. The Veterans Administration has announced.

Regulations and procedures to put the new law into effect are now being drafted by the VA. Following is an outline of some of the more important changes resulting from the new law:

(1) The amount of the VA's guaranty on an eligible veteran's home loan guarantee is increased to 60 percent of the loan, up to a maximum of $7,500. Previously, the guaranty was 50 percent, up to $4,000.

(2) Unmarried widows of deceased veterans who died in service, or from service-connected causes after discharge, are made eligible for G.I. loan benefits to which their husbands would have been entitled.

(3) Combination FHA-GI loans to veterans will not be guaranteed after October 20, 1950. These loans are more costly and less advantageous to the borrower than the straight G.I. loan.

(4) The maximum period of time over which home loans may be made payable is extended from 25 years to 30 years, to provide lower monthly payments.

(5) Effective 90 days from the signing of the act, the VA is authorized to make direct government loans at 4 percent interest to eligible veterans in certain areas where 4 percent home financing is not available from other sources. Such veterans must meet all qualifications for a regular G.I. loan, including credit and income requirements.

(6) Homes on which construction is to begin subsequent to 60 days from the effective date of the law will not be eligible for sale to veterans with the aid of G.I. loans unless the property meets certain minimum construction requirements as prescribed by the VA.

(7) The VA is authorized, in certain circumstances, to restore the loan guaranty rights of veterans who used their entitlement to purchase property which later is taken through condemnation or is destroyed by fire or other natural hazard.

(8) The law also includes provisions to make G.I. loans for farm dwellings easier to obtain.
