

HIGH SCHOOL BAND MARCHES WITH BEAVERTON ROSE FLOAT

LEADING BEAVERTON'S FLOAT ENTRY in the 1950 Rose Festival parade will again be the Beaverton band, which did itself proud last year when it escorted the blue-ribbon-winning Wagon Wheels entry through the streets of Portland. The junior chamber of commerce, sponsoring this year's entry, announces that arrangements are shaping up for the inter-community effort of executing the float preparation plans.

Members of the band include: Trumpets, Don Strandberg, Carl Petty, Don Motz, Walter Speer, Billy Howell, Dale Burger and Billy Henderson. Clarinets: Kent Kitts, Harold Rich, Jean Hansen, Bonnie Cameron, Allan Croeni, Sherman Pauly, Elaine Hanson, Gretta Robinson and Jackie Henriksen. Flutes: Caryl Jean Short and Karl Freerkson. Horns: Jean Coulter, Dorothy Eddy and Carolan Popp.

Trombones: Harold Smith and Ronald Hansen. Bass, Roy Childs; Baritone, Don Chambers and Eddie Zurlueh. Saxophones: John Comer, Eddie Ramsdell and Travis Cavens. Drums: Bob Speer, Bob Gollihur, Dorine Doley, LaVelle DeHaan, Ruth Rhone and Carole Olson. Dorothy Carr and Leonore Boyesen are drum majorettes only while Dorothy Eddy and Carolyn Popp play horns as well as twirl the baton.

Ralph Hanson spent several days at his former home in Napavine, Washington this past week.

REGULAR CLUB MEETING
Saturday, May 13, is the regular monthly meeting of the Bonny Slope Community Club, to be held at the club house at 8:30 p. m.

After the meeting, pot luck lunch will be served. Everyone in the community is invited and urged to attend.

WISCONSIN VISITORS
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Karlan of Wisconsin are visiting their son-in-law and daughter and their family, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Snyder of Cedar Hills.

Both families are former residents of this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Karlan resided for sometime in the home now occupied by the Muni Carl family on Marcott road.

JUDGES' STATEMENT

We, the undersigned, members of the Advisory Board of Judges, appointed to supervise the closing of the Pioneer Publishing Company's subscription campaign which concluded this day and date do hereby state that:

We have this day made a thorough canvass of all ballots cast in the Ballot Box at the Beaverton office of the Pioneer Publishing Co., have given full credit for each subscription found therein, and have added the totals of these votes for each individual candidate to the total votes earned by each candidate prior to the last report day, which they have already figured and signed for.

We have furthermore found the winners of the five bicycles which were given as major prizes in the campaign to be as follows:

District No. One Capital Prize	JIMMIE BYRNES	513,000
District No. Two Capital Prize	CHRISTINE DAVIS	426,250
District No. Three Capital Prize	CECIL FLEENOR	486,250

The above three candidates, having finished the campaign with the most votes in their respective districts, are winners of the district capital prize bicycles. The other two bicycles, which were to be given to the two candidates (regardless of district) having the next highest numbers of votes, were won by:

Fourth Choice of Bikes	FRED RANDS	406,000
Fifth Choice of Bikes	RONALD KIPP	390,500

The above five candidates win the five bicycles. The following candidates will each receive a cash commission equal to twenty percent (20%) of all the money he or she has turned in for subscriptions.
