

MEN'S BALLET RATES TOPS AT PTA SPRING COTTON FESTIVAL

By Mrs. Helen Hanson

BONNY SLOPE — The Spring Cotton Festival that was held at the new Bonny Slope grade school gymnasium on Saturday, May 13th was a big success.

It was sponsored by the local PTA.

Music for the evenings dancing was played by the Dick Kokich orchestra.

A ballet dance number was presented by a group of the neighborhood men.

Those taking part were: Charles Carlson, Harold Rollings, Robert Taylor, Bob Jorgenson, Mosey Grosse, Bud Isaacson, Henry Mitchell, and C. I. Faris.

Mrs. Bob Jorgenson was chosen the "Cotton Queen" and was presented an orchid.

PHILADELPHIA PROMOTES

Word was received here in the community this past week that Mr. Lowell Emerson, formerly of this district had been promoted to general manager of The Flying Tiger Lines at the International Airport in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

He has been station manager at Oakland, California for the same company for the past few months. He will return to Oakland in about two months, and take his wife and baby son back with him.

Minister Notes Eighth Year In Church Service

WEST SLOPE — George Cedar-

quist will be ordained and installed, and George E. Miller and John Ferguson will be installed with him as ruling elders in the Valley Community United Presbyterian church, S. W. Laurewood Dr., and Brentwood Avenue, West Slope, next Sunday at 11 a. m. New members will be publicly welcomed.

May 21st marks the eighth anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. H. A. Armitage, who preached his first sermon to 17 people, including his family, on May 17th, 1942. The present membership is 264 and the Sunday School enrollment is 450.

Campfire Group Surprise Gifts

There were plenty of "oohs" and "ahs" Monday afternoon when the girls in the Woodgatherers' Campfire Group received surprise gifts straight from the Philippine Islands.

The husband of their guardian, Captain H. C. Sorensen, returned last Thursday night from a trip to the Orient and brought each girl in his wife's group a hand embroidered blouse from the Philippines. Each blouse is complimented by a little bolera jacket and the Campfire girls are considering themselves very lucky indeed.

Saddle Clubbers Plan To Attend Breakfast Ride

The Beaverton Saddle Club met last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fruck. Arrangements were made for a large number of the members to attend the St. Paul breakfast and trail ride on June 4. This is an annual event among riding enthusiasts in this part of the country.

Plans are in the making for a gala celebration of the local club's third anniversary in June. Mrs. Jake Strauss, president, says that final details will be announced later.

With the advent of pleasant weather the club members have started trail riding again and enjoyed an early evening ride last Saturday evening. Any local people who would be interested in riding with the club are invited to call Mrs. Strauss at Beaverton 4991.

VISIT FROM BOISE

HUSBAND BREATHES EASIER AS PTA PRESIDENT FINISHES JOB

SYLVAN—The final session for the Sylvan PTA this season was concluded in the evening with many of the fathers attending. Tuesday, May 9th.

Mrs. Stuart Kerr, president for 2 years received a standing ovation. Mr. Kerr said, "Now I'll be able to talk to my wife on the phone again. I hope."

Mrs. Kerr installed the new officers and gave them gardenia corsages.

Mrs. Waldo Perry is now president (with only one dissenting vote by Mr. Perry).

Mrs. Ralph Davis is 1st vice president, Mrs. Charles Fisher, 2nd vice president and Mrs. Donald Holman is secretary. Mrs. Earl Williams was re-elected treasurer and Mrs. E. Chumard is historian.

Another rising vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Harry Norquist for her excellent planning of the school cafeteria lunches which has a standing of one of the best in the Northwest.

Mr. Ralph Nelson, principal, presented Mr. William Bryant as the new Boy Scout Master, replacing Mr. William Morris now retired after six years of splendid guidance to the Sylvan scouts.

Mr. Bryant, with his wife and very new baby, has been in Sylvan only a few months. The scouts are all enthusiastic about their new troop master.

FETES TODAY'S MOTHER

Friday May 12th the Sylvan Glee club, conducted by Mrs. Agnes Swift, sang to famous American mothers portrayed by the 4th graders, the teacher, Mrs. Leonard Wargi directing.

The 4th grade mothers attending were especially honored as "Mothers of To-day" with pretty hand made corsages and to the tune of "M is for the million things you gave me".

The Pioneer mother heard "Oh Susanna" a harmonica solo by Bud Kibbee and "On the Oregon Trail" by the Glee club.

Sacajawea listened to "Pale Moon", the Pilgrim mother to Brahms Lullaby, George Washington's mother to "Yankee Doodle" and Lincoln's mother to "Oh Come All Ye Faithful People" with Lincoln sprawled full length at her feet.

T AND T MAY BASKETS

Mrs. Hilma Mattson was hostess to her fellow members of the T and T club for the May meeting with the ladies taking part in a May Basket contest, and featuring many unusual and interesting entries.

First prize was won by the exhibit of Mrs. Ehte Vradenburg, second by Mrs. J. W. Gumm and third by Mrs. Emily Waddell. Refreshments followed the May day theme. Mrs. Vradenburg will be hostess for the June meeting.
