ODDS and ENDS Of Council Meetin'

DOG CATCHER BRUISED.—By tone of letter received at the May 8 meeting of the city council, D. F. Kannekman, city and county dog catcher, has had his feelings bruised.

Kannekman submitted his resignation on account of having been fined $1 for parking 1 foot beyond the allowed limit. He declared he was not at all satisfied at the discourtesy of the arresting officer. The council accepted his withdrawal in unanimous vote.

CITY ELECTRICAL CODE

Taking note of Beaverton building activities and the long look of the future, the council has begun study for an electrical code. Under consideration is one taken from the Portland statutes which also adopts the state code as well as set up a schedule of fees.

Fred Goyt was commissioned to contact electrical firms of the city for their viewpoints on the matter, expecting an answer in 2 or 3 weeks, at which time the matter will again be brought before the council.

BUSINESS ZONE ASKED

Because of the rush of cars to park adjacent to the postoffice, the Gardenia Floral shop requests a business zone in front of its place of business, according to communication from Ida Hart, Oscar Martin will "investigate and report".

FIREMAN'S CONVENTION

Councilman Martin is also commissioned to "investigate and report" the request of Archie Olson, fire chief, to an estimated $40 expenses to enable him to attend the State fire convention.
