GRANGE POTLUCK

The Beaverton Grange held regular meeting at the Grange hall on Saturday May 13, following a twelve o'clock pot luck luncheon.

LEGION HALL BREAK-IN

The American Legion hall was broken into sometime in the early hours of the morning on Sunday, May 14. Quite a lot of damage was done as well as loss of quite a large amount of money.

The State Police were notified and are investigating the robbery.

TRAIL RIDE AND DANCE

A group of Beaverton Saddle Club members enjoyed an evening trail ride on Cooper Mountain last Saturday evening.

Also on the social calendar for club members was a dance at Ruby Stock farm last Saturday evening for which Western Riders were hosts.

ILLNESS CONFINES

Albert Highbe is being kept to his home on Second St., by illness.

Piano Recital On May 31 Features Eleven Year Old

Lynda Horney, eleven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Horney, 751 S. E. Denny Road, Beaverton, will be presented May 31, 8:15 p. m. in the Bethel Congregational Church as a piano student of Erma Taylor Sparks. Lynda will play numbers by Mozart, Beethoven and Schubert. Assisting her on the program will be Miss Jackie Lee Brown, reader. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Look out for children—give them a brake.

Girls Name New Officers May 15 At Regular Meet

Bethel No. 20, Order of Jobs Daughters had election of officers at the regular meeting Monday night May 15.

Those elected to serve for the ensuing term are: Dolores Carlson, queen elect; Barbara Hemrick, senior princess; Roberta Pointer, junior princess; Sylvia Wilson, guide, and Maureen Kain, marshal.

Public installation for these and all other officers will be held on Monday night, June 5, at 8:00 p. m. at Beaverton Masonic Temple.

FORMERLY OF HUBER

Mrs. Hattie Haines of Portland, for a number of years a Huber resident was calling on old friends here Monday and Tuesday.

DOUBLE REASON CLOSURE

The Do-Nut Kettle will be closed at noon on May 27 and reopened on June 5, for remodeling and so that the owners, Edith Blackwell and Helen Little may enjoy a much earned vacation.

SENIOR DAY AT BEACH

Senior day was spent at Rockaway beach, May 19, touched off by fun, sun-burn, and tan.

FRESH WELCOME DAY

Open house to the eighth grade graduates of the neighboring parishes was held on Ascension Thursday from 1:00 p. m. to 4:00 p. m.

ACADEMY FETES "BLUE HAWAII" FOR THEME OF SPRING PROM

ST. MARY'S OF THE VALLEY—A constant whirl of activities has been spinning at St. Mary's of the Valley Academy the past weeks.

"Blue Hawaii" furnished the colorful theme for the spring prom. Tropical decorations in abundance touched by delicate charm transformed the ball room into a fairyland. Miss Joan Wisniewski of Tacoma, Washington, crowned Queen Mary XI and accompanied by the royal consort, Mr. Dennis McCoy of Hillsboro, touched off the climax of the evening by crowning the Virgin, the true May Queen, high in a lovely grotto. Bus Bröm's orchestra contributed largely to the perfect evening.

LIVING ROSARY

The procession of the beautiful living rosary, formed by students in blue uniforms and seniors in white caps and gowns, took place a sunny afternoon the middle of May.

The formation organized in the chapel to the strains of Marian hymns passed along the drive, across the rich green lawn, to the academy grotto. The rosary closed with an Act of Consecration lead by Donna McCoy, sodality prefect. The recessional finished in the chapel with Benediction by the Chaplain, the Reverend E. McMullen.

CLASS JOINS SODALITY

Members of the freshmen class furnished an impressive ceremony, Sunday, May 21, when the Reverend Director received them into the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Luncheon was served after the reception.

Those selected for membership were: Mary Ansbro, Bruna Barsotti, Germaine Boyd, Janet Burdette, Patricia Chadwick, Mary Jo Doohar, Kathleen Fery, Nadine Manos, Shirley Mansfield, Marlene Paris, Louise Ricke, Janet Silinger, Alice White, Pauline Zinsli.

Theresa Schneider acted as toastmaster. Donna McCoy, Patricia Ledwith, Laudean Lamberger, and Bruna Marie Barsotti gave inspiring responses.

DOUBLE DISTINCTION

Rosalie Wilson recently received two honors of distinction: she was the senior selected to represent the school on the Beaverton float for the Portland Rose festival; and has just received notice of her citation for the third prize in the essay contest awarded by the Knights of Columbus. The topic was, "The Significance of Holy Year".
