Know Your Maker

By Geo. N. Taylor

First you see Christ as Creator—BIBLE, John 1:3. Then He strips off His glory to step down and take human birth among us and grow up as the Son of Man. At the end, sinless Himself, Christ took our sins and died for us.

But being the Source and Giver of all life, death and the grave could not hold Him. So—Up from the grave He arose, with a mighty triumph over His foes. And He imparts His life to all who accept Him as having died for them. More —The utterly surrendered have His power, joy and peace in largest measure. Resurrection glory yet awaits His saved ones. And yet to be, is His coming to abolish war and set up peace. Also Judgement Day is later.

Sum It Up—God out of His great Shepherd Heart, yearns after you. When you receive Christ into your heart as Lord and Saviour, God gives you eternal life. Not by good works that you have done, but by God's mercy, He saves you. —Titus 3:5. So which for you? Saved and Glory or Lost and Judgement? Which?
