Men Fill Chairs Special Occasion Rebekah Lodge

The Beaverton Rebekahs held their regular meeting at the IOOF hall on Tuesday, June 6, which was men's night and the noble grand appointed the following men to fill the chairs:

Allen Butts, N. G.; right supporter, C. J. Stevens; left supporter, Mr. Harris; V. G. Hugh Lewis; R. S. Raymond Heard; L. S. Paul Lusk; P. N. G. William Bloom; supporters Dewey Dorrbaugh and William Newcomer; alter bearers, Willis Warner and John Anderson; chaplain, L. L. Humburg; warden, Veldon Newcomb; conductor Verne McRoberts; I. G. Mr. Shaner; O. G. Edward Sheets, and color bearer, Wallace Ehler.

The members stood in silent tribute to the memory of Adeline Frost and then the charter was draped in loving memory of her. The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Hensely was celebrated with a tribute by the Past Noble Grand. Gifts, cards and a cake, a gift was also presented to Leona Randa in appreciation of assisting drill captain.

A report was read by May Lusk as delegate to the Rebekah assembly at Astoria on May 15 to 18, and Bertha Anderson reported on the Patriarch Militants. There were 61 members and 11 visitors present who adjourned to the dining room for cake, jello, coffee and tea.
