HOT POTATOES TO LOAN

North Bend, the week of June 15-17 inclusive, had plenty of hot potatoes to loan to a corps of visitors who may have been required to leave their own at home.

The COOS BAY HARBOR observes, in regard to the annual meeting of the Oregon Newspaper Publishers association, that editors who had to leave burning issues at home could find plenty to fill in there.

The editor breezily lists these as: a strike in its 21st day; a rejected city budget and pending recall of a school director.

Certainly, it is pointed out, the editorial peace and tranquility needn't dog any of the esteemed visitors.
