LURE OF A GREEN PEA

While gardens in the area grow lushly and give tempting promises of delightful experiences in eating, C. F. Trachsel, Reedville, reports that the lure of a green pea cost him considerable.

Trachsel relates that between 11 and 12 p. m., July 9, someone invaded his garden and made off with about 35 quarts of green garden peas from his vines. Since the vegetable plot is located in back of the house, someone in the vicinity who knows this location and has an overwhelming fondness for green peas is main suspect.

WAR SOUVENIR LOSS

A treasured war souvenir of Robert Warner, 891 S. E. 12th, Beaverton, is lost, according to report.

Either strayed or stolen is the .38 calibre Astra Automatic with walnut handle, gun metal finish and serial number No. 590289. Vanished last spring from his home at Reedville, by the Mather Apartments, the loss is now reported upon location of the Army authorization slip giving the serial number.

VENTILATORS NABBED

A number of ventilator louvres were nabbed on July 10 from the building site at Sandberg Addition adjacent to Pinehurst, reports A. M. Baker, 46 S. W. 7th, Beaverton, who sets the time of the theft as about midnight previous.

Baker had been working in the construction office until 8:30 p. m., July 9, and returned about 12:15 a. m. He noticed the tool shed door ajar with the lock lying on the ground, along with one ventilator louvre which the thief apparently missed.

Apparently the incident was well planned for the thief seemed to know what he wanted and came prepared to get it. Suspected is someone building his own house.

Henry Mayfield, of the Beaverton police department, reported an old model Dodge or Plymouth coupe had parked about 1000 yards from the construction site, about 12:05 p. m.

TOOLS TAKE LEAVE

Albert McKay, P.O. Box No. 75, Reedville, manager of the Kelly Farms, reports that 3 crescent wrenches, one pipe ring and a punch took leave from his possession on July 9, near the airport.

One wrench has been electrically "tattooed" with "KF", meaning Kelly Farms.

TYPEWRITER IS GONE

An old model Underwood typewriter, valued at about $25, is gone from its familiar haunts in the office of Fred McLain, Cedar Mill Park, according to report.

On July 9, between 9:15 p. m. and 10:30 p. m., McClain left his office, above the Chuck Wagon cafe, for a cup of coffee, failing to secure the door.

Suspect in the case is a young man between 16 and 20, about 5' 8", 165 pounds, curly brown hair. No apprehension of the guilty one is told.

KICKIN' TILE AROUND

H. W. Rinehardt, 8623 S. W. King Street, in Garden Home, is singing a new version of an old ditty: "You gotta stop kickin' my tile around".

At the Garden Home grade school, where he is employed, damage in the amount of about $60 was caused by someone who kicked some 200 feet of drain tile out of place. Also added to the destruction was the smashing of one window; breaking of 6 tile cemented into the septic tank and the filling of the tank with rubbish and debris.

HUB CAPS RECOVERED

Hub caps were returned July 10 after Clarence Hiberon, 142 W. Lincoln Street, Hillsboro reported the theft of four from his 1947 Ford. Value was set at $14.

The theft took place at the home of Melvin McRobert, Route 1, Box 193, Aloha.

Four suspects in the area were grilled without the sought-after admissions of guilt, although one said the other three had been "looking for hub caps".

FAMILIAR REFRAIN

Eugene Alloway, Route 1, Box 93, Tigard, sings the old familiar refrain, after being taken on a check offered June 10 and returned "unable to locate".

Alloway, who operates Gene's Grocery, believes the check was given by a man and woman, in payment for a small order of groceries.

Made out to and endorsed by "L. R. Herold", the paper was signed by Mrs. Louise Eggert, 6470 S. W. 55th, Portland.

By the developments of the case, Gene assumes that the address must be fictitious, since it can't be located.
