

W. Slope Church Invites Pastor Of Multnomah

The Valley Community United Presbyterian church, S. W. Brentwood Avenue and Laurelwood Drive, West Slope, will have as its guest minister next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Rev. John C. Nevin, pastor of the Multnomah United Presbyterian church.

There will be no Sunday school at 9:45, but nursery and beginner departments will meet at 11 o'clock. All other classes are asked to attend the 11 o'clock worship service, or the Junior Missionary Society, which meets at the same hour.

GREEN STAMP SALESMAN

Recent visitors in the community were the Mike Senko family, who formerly lived on McChesney road and are now making their home in Clarkston, Idaho.

They visited Mrs. Opal Thompson, Mrs. Senko's sister, and old friends on McChesney road, including the H. A. Spear family.

Mr. Senko is Green Stamp salesman in the territory around Clarkston.

POOL BENEFIT CHAIRMAN

Mrs. Norton Peck has been appointed as chairman of the sales committee for tickets to the program for the benefit of the swimming pool project on August 23rd.

AMATEUR IN FISHING PARTY CATCHES TWO FEET OF TROUT

By Mrs. W. A. Bunnell
WEST SLOPE — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunter are expecting her ten year old niece, Sigrid Sorenson, from Seaside Thursday to spend the remainder of the summer visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter have just returned from Klamath Falls where they went in company with Dr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson of Palatine Hill on a fishing trip to Wood river. Mrs. Hunter, the amateur in the party, caught the largest fish in the group, a twenty four inch trout.

CALIF. CITIZEN OF YEAR

Mr. and Mrs. Norton Peck were looking forward Monday to the expected arrival of Mrs. Peck's brother in law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Perry and family and their friend Mary Regan who were coming from Davis, California to spend several days.

Mrs. Perry has recently received a trophy as Citizen of the Year in Davis for her work in community activities.

Bridal Couple Of August 12 Make Portland Home

WEST SLOPE — Miss Eleanor Ruth Abplanalp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Abplanalp, became the bride of Edwin David Strobbridge, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin D. Strobbridge in a setting of white gladioli at the Valley Community Presbyterian church on the evening of August 12th. Reverend Walter M. Frutiger officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a dress of white marquisette and lace with cap of matching lace holding her fingertip veil. She carried a nosegay of fleur d'amour centered with white orchids.

Miss Carolyn Joan Abplanalp was maid of honor for her sister and the Misses Patricia Kelly and Beverly Buckley were bridesmaids, all gowned in white embroidered organdy with matching picture hats, and carrying a bouquet of white gladioli.

L. Phaoon Gambee was best man. Ushers were Richard Couch, James Fletcher, Peter Coerner, and David Hibbard.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the church. Mesdames Hiram Kimball and H. H. Narver poured. Assisting were Mesdames Walter and Melchior Raz, and Lester Binns, and the Misses Mathilde Raz, Ruth Corbett, Verna Cutsforth and Mary Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Strobbridge will be at home in Portland after August 21st.

PLANS TO RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. C. McCarthy have had as house guests for three weeks his sister, Miss Vina McCarthy, who returned to her home in Los Angeles Thursday.

During her visit here the family made several trips to points of interest including Government Camp and Seaside.

Miss McCarthy, who is seventy-two, plans to come here to live and for her use her brother and his wife are arranging living quarters on their property.

FRIEND AT SEASIDE

Nancy Stutthard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stutthard, is spending a few weeks with friends at Seaside.

Nancy is a junior at Beaverton high school.

UNDETERMINED ILLNESS

Mrs. George Keller was taken to Good Samaritan hospital Saturday by ambulance for treatment of a sudden attack of undetermined illness.

WEEK IN LA GRANDE

Mr. and Mrs. Hill Templeton and son Dick left Sunday to spend a week visiting in La Grande.

WINCHESTER BAY VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mattoon and three children are vacationing this week at Winchester Bay.

AWAITS ASSIGNMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wetterborg are at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Wetterborg in West Slope while Gerald is awaiting his assignment to a station in the Marine Corps.

He received the call to duty while working on dam construction work near Detroit, Oregon, to which he had moved only two weeks before.

Mrs. Wetterborg, his wife, will remain here while Lt. Wetterborg is gone.

LONG LIST OF GUESTS

The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Statter has provided hospitality to a long list of guests during the past summer season.

The last of these to leave for home last week, included her sister, Mrs. William Ulrich and Mr. and Mrs. C. K. McCourt and two children, all of Port Angelus. Mrs. McCourt is the niece of Mrs. Statter.

Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Larson of San Francisco, who spent several days here.

Fred Statter, their son, who has attended St. Martin's for the past two years, hopes to finish his final two years of college at the University of Oregon unless called to military duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Statter plan to go north sometime next week for a short vacation trip.

GOING ON A TRIP

Let us put your car in TRIP TRIM with this 8 point routine

- 1 Check your battery, make sure it's fully charged, has plenty of water. Inspect and clean battery cables.
- 2 Check your tires—spare, too—for soundness, right pressure. Remove foreign particles.
- 3 Drain crankcase—refill with wear-saving "RPM".
- 4 Get rid of squeaks by expert chassis lubrication. Service air cleaner and oil breather cap.
- 5 Drain gear cases, refill with RPM Gear Lubricant.
- 6 Clean, inspect and repack front wheel bearings.
- 7 Check—and replenish if necessary—master brake cylinder and shock absorbers.
- 8 Top off with power-packed Chevron Supreme Gasoline—ready for the highway!
