VACATION SHORTENS; CHILDREN RESUME STUDIES ON SEPT. 5TH

By Gertrude Pearson
Vacation time is drawing short for children of the district. The school bell is scheduled to ring out at 9 o'clock on the morning of September 5 to herald the new school year.

CLUB GARDEN
Cornell club ladies and their children enjoyed a garden picnic at the C. H. Katterman home on Sauvies Island, August 9.

Nearing completion is the gymnasium-auditorium, which should be a valuable asset for the children's use.

The Columbia river flows past the front door of the Katterman residence lending an atmosphere such as only water can make.

Teachers and personnel at the school will continue as last year.

Swimming at a nearby sandy beach kept small fry occupied during the afternoon.

Wild Boy Tamed

By Geo. N. Taylor

Yes, Richard was a wild one and after months away from home, met and married Flo. Then in the little saw-mill town out in the wilds, they went along to the Revival Meetings and there Richard turned and received Christ into his heart as God the Saviour who died for him. So Rich was saved—And later Flo.

Next day Richard wired the news to his father up in Portland and the man's eyes sparkled as he passed the word along. Back of it Geo. N. Taylor was the father's prayer list. For years he had prayed that son might be saved and now God had answered.

Who can name the joy in God's heart and among parents, husbands and wives when son, daughter or neighbor turns to believe on Christ as God the Saviour who died for them? And your prayer-list? "Call upon me and I will answer thee and show thee great and mighty things that thou knowest not!"—Jeremiah 33:3—BIBLE.

GRANDPARENTS' EVENT

On August 8, Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Bixby, 1406 N. E. Center street, Beaverton, were telling their friends and neighbors of a thrilling grandparent's event, about which they were highly rejoicing. Their daughter, Mrs. Harold Torland, bestowed the honored title upon them when an 8 pound 4 ounce daughter made her appearance at Jones hospital. Mother and daughter are doing fine and ready to return home, by now.

Other grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Torland, of Barbur Boulevard.

Papa Torland, too, is about beside himself with happiness over the tiny charming miss.
