

FLOWER SHOW ARRANGEMENTS HIT SNAG OF DATE CONFLICT

By Gertrude E. Pearson

CEDAR MILL—Garden club members held a wiener roast and picnic Wednesday, August 16 at Lewis and Clark college. A business meeting followed the luncheon.

Discussion on a fall flower show date resulted in conflict because of other activities. The date will be announced later.

Flower show chairman is Mrs. L. W. Kingsley. Chairmen to assist were named as follows: Staging, Mrs. A. R. Pearson; schedule, Mrs. E. V. Love; tea, Mrs. Frank Malcolm; luncheon, Mrs. B. D. Litchford; ribbons, Mrs. W. J. Polette; placing, Mrs. James Walters; publicity, Mrs. Peter Hohnstein; judges, Mrs. F. R. Young; junior division, Mrs. Carl Bruechert; hospitality, Mrs. W. A. Holley; guest book, Mrs. Al Reed; and clean-up, Mrs. A. E. Hickethier.

The show will be open to the public for two consecutive afternoons on Saturday and Sunday. Proceeds from a silver tea will be given to the Oregon Botanical Gardens.

Results of the Home Grounds Beautification contest were announced. First award of shrubbery was won by Mrs. W. A. Holley, second, Mrs. L. W. Kingsley and third, Mrs. C. P. Pennington.

Mrs. James Walters and Mrs. Roy Williams volunteered to represent the garden club in assisting with a plaque bearing the name of at the Washington county fair.

A meeting of the program committee and executive board members was announced for August 22 at the home of Mrs. L. S. Uppinghouse.

Program at the next meeting September 20 will be on spring flowers and bulbs.
