

SHORTAGE OF MATERIAL SLOWS SCHOOL GYM DEDICATION PLAN

By Gertrude Pearson

CEDAR MILL—Material shortages will delay completion of the gymnasium auditorium until after the school session is resumed.

It had been planned that dedication ceremonies could be held early in September but heating units and other materials will delay it somewhat. A more accessible roadway is being bulldozed to the school buildings.

School will begin September 5. Members of the staff will be Mrs. Elsie Underwood, principal and 5th and 6th grade teacher; Mrs. Marcia Snook, 7th and 8th grade teacher; Mrs. Edna Greene, 3rd and 4th grade teacher and Miss Leona Fesler, primary teacher. A part time instructor in physical education will be Don Whitbeck and a part time music instructor is yet to be acquired.

Mrs. Emma Nichol continues as cafeteria cook and N. P. Pearson as custodian.
