Former Student Of Beaverton Hi Victim Of Polio

Lloyd Allen Ingram, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Graden C. Ingram, formerly of Cedar Mill, died suddenly August 28, in the U. S. Naval hospital in Portsmouth, Virginia, of poliomyelitis.

He attended Beaverton high school through the sophomore year, leaving there in 1947 to join the U. S. Navy, at the age of 17. He married Miss Rita Carmen Graham, April 22, 1950, and for the past four months they lived at Norfolk, Virginia.

Survivors include his widow, of Norfolk; father and mother and brothers Dale, and Lowell, all of Portland; brother Loren, Nyack, New York; brother Lyle, Coos Bay and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bergman, Portland.

Rosary service was held Monday evening, September 4, at 7:30 p. m. and mass on September 5, 9 a. m., at St. Peter's Church, 87th and S. E. Foster, Portland. Interment followed, in Lincoln Memorial Park.

The remains were shipped from the naval hospital and funeral rites were conducted at the Jacobson Family's mortuary, 91st and S. E. Foster Road, Portland.

LOADS ARE LIGHTER

The loads and bundles Ed Smith, of the Beaverton Sanitary Service, lifts and hauls these days are a lot lighter because of the joy in his heart.

Ed tells of the arrival, August 22, at home, of Elizabeth Ann, who weighed 8 pounds 6 1/4 ounces upon her appearance. This is the fifth member of his rising generation.

Mother and babe are doing fine. As for the proud papa, you just can't reach him, his head's so high.

Carl-Carr Rites Held August 22 Portland Church

Mrs. Robert W. Carl

Shirley Louise Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Carr, on Sorrento road, and Robert W. Carl, of Portland, were united in marriage, August 22, in a ceremony performed by Dr. W. Ward Davis, at the First Presbyterian church, in Portland.

The bride wore a white taffeta gown with lace bolero, fingertip illusion veil and carried an orchid and stephanotis on a Bible.

Dorothy Lee Carr, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was dressed in yellow taffeta with lace bolero and hat. Bridesmaids, similarly gowned, were Mrs. B. Webster Ross and Phyllis Horesman. Mr. and Mrs. Willmer Wallace sang.

Tom Hartung was best man. Ushers included Tom McGill, Wesley Brigham, Robert Swan, George Webster Ross and Richard Hendrie.

A reception was held after the ceremony, in the church parlors.

Out of town guests includes Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Thompson, Douglas and Carol, of Fresno; Mrs. Carrie Storm, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas and John, of Oak Harbor, Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Anderson, of Seattle.

The bridal couple made a wedding trip north and will make their home in Portland.

NOW HEAR THIS!

Mr. and Mrs. George Harris, who live with her mother, Mrs. Randy Hart, on Cedar Street, Beaverton, might well be excused if they were to revert to an old navy custom of prefacing an announcement with the compelling order, "Now, hear this!"

Reason for the announcement is Miss Georgia Lee Harris, who was a July 9th arrival at Wilcox Memorial hospital, Portland. The mother and daughter have long ago returned home but no matter how long the news is in getting printed, it's still big news.

Mr. and Mrs. Hart, maternal grandparents, share the lasting joy of the occasion with Mrs. Winnie Harris, paternal grandmother, of Fort Worth, Texas.

George, the proud father, is a native of Fort Worth and was discharged last April 29 after six years in the U. S. Navy.

Now you Know!

The answers to everyday insurance problems*
By Leonard Adams

QUESTION: I understand only 10% of the $10,000 fire insurance policy we have on our house applies to the garage. We recently built a playroom over our garage at considerable expense and I would like to know how to insure the increased value.

ANSWER: The garage may be insured separately and it would be wise to handle it that way in the circumstances you describe.

*If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.

In His Secret

By Geo. N. Taylor

"I was saved to-day in the Billy Graham meeting and now the burden of my heart is lifted off." So said one of the younger women and she now has her place in God's eternal family. For it has been God's secret intent from all ages past to redeem a people on whom to lavish his love and grace forever and ever. So God now has this woman as redeemed and for all eternity.

—BIBLE, Ephesians 2:7 and 3:8-10, BIBLE.

Geo. N. Taylor
Your Part—Possess Christ, own Him, rely on Him, believe in Him, as having died for your sins. But if you reject Him as your own Saviour you go into hell at death. Possess Him and you have eternal life.—John 3:36. Yes, make Him your own Lord and Saviour and God gives you eternal life.

Being saved, die to self that Christ may indwell you and give you victory over old days, ways and sins. Gal. 2:20.
