

COMMUNITY'S HEALTH SECURE IF RESIDENT DOCTORS CAN DO

By Mrs. W. A. Bunnell
WEST SLOPE — The health of citizens of this community should be well looked after, considering the sales of homes to physicians reported during the past few days by one real estate company of West Slope, with the added protection of a life insurance representative.

Dr. Ronald Tall of Portland has purchased the Ryan property on Multnomah Club road, moving this week. Dr. Orton Hall and family bought a home in Vista Court; Dr. Rogers Smith of Vancouver, is a new resident of Murlea addition, and Dr. Burnham Brook will make his home on Howatt road.

Mr. Burton Selberg, manager of Equitable Life Insurance company, last week purchased one of the new homes in Brentwood.

PLEDGES PHI DELT

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Statter drove out to Eugene Sunday to take their son Frederick to the University. Frederick received an invitation from the men at Phi Delta house to make his home there this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Statter returned last week from a visit with Mrs. Statter's sister and family at Victoria B. C.

Promotion Rally Day Observed At W. Slope Church

WEST SLOPE — Next Sunday, September 17, will be observed by the Valley Community United Presbyterian church, as Rally Day and Promotion Sunday, with advancement of pupils in all departments from nursery grade up to higher classes.

At the morning service, special recognition will be given teachers of the Bible school. Howard Foster is superintendent of the Sunday school.

Work on the primary department, in the church manse, is being brought to a conclusion this week with the final laying of tile on the floor. The work is being done by men of the congregation, under the direction of Leonard Pardue and Howard Foster.

New lighting fixtures have been added and the walls finished with knotty cedar, making an attractive setting for the youngsters' morning meetings.

Beam-Allen Wed September 9th; Honeymoon In BC

WEST SLOPE—Blue and gold figured in the decoration of the First Presbyterian church in Portland on the evening of September 9, when Helen Roberta Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Allen, of Benz Park, became the bride of Charles William Beam, son of Mrs. J. W. Beam, of Parkdale. The eight o'clock ceremony was performed by Dr. Paul Wright, in the presence of 400 guests.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a gown of white satin with court train and Chantilly lace yoke, edged with pearl beads. Her illusion veil was held by a close fitting cap of satin and lace, with orange blossoms at each side, and she carried a shower bouquet of white Fuji chrysanthemums.

Her matron of honor, Mrs. E. A. Dickason (Helen Randall), wore blue taffeta, and carried gold bronze chrysanthemums. Mrs. Andrew Klein, of Forest Grove, as bridesmaid, wore French blue and carried a shower bouquet of French blue chrysanthemums and silver foliage.

Mrs. Harold Mattice, in royal blue, and Miss Gretta Lewis, in Alice blue, carried flowers to match their dresses, also with silver foliage. Candle lighters, Jaqueline Chalmers and Louise Lawrence wore cream taffeta with arm garlands of bronze chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Allen, the mother of the bride, wore pale rose lace over satin with an orchid corsage. Mrs. Beam, Sr. wore an American Beauty rose with blue accessories.

Best man was Chester Beam, brother of the groom. Ushers were Kenneth Beam, Norville Jones, Clifford Beam, and Glen Brokav. Dr. John Stark Evans played the wedding music, and Mrs. Wm. Jenne (Grace Rich) was soloist, singing "Through The Years" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Following the ceremony, a reception for 250 persons was held at the home of the bride. Cutting the cake were Mesdames Wm. Wardell, Chester Ehle, and Fred Schroder. Pouring were Mesdames Albert Ritter, Ralph Deardorff, and M. Budde. At the punch bowl were Mrs. Walter Cramer and Mrs. Larry Wentmore.

Assisting about the rooms were Mesdames Arnold Jensen of Hillsboro, Ernest McHenry, Wm. Boorkman, Frank Kehrl, Archie Bradshaw, and sorority sisters of the bride, Margaret Kehrl, Florence McKinley, Mrs. Jack Mulkey and Mrs. Arthur Trachsel. Mrs. Clifford Zollinger acted as hostess for the reception.

For her going away costume, the bride chose a purple and gray plaid suit and hat with kollinsky scarf and white orchid corsage.

The young couple planned to spend two weeks in Vancouver, B. C. and will make their home, on returning, at 5850 S. W. Terwilliger boulevard. Mr. Beam will resume his classes at Oregon medical school for the winter season.
