

TIGARD-MCKAY EXTENSION UNIT PLANS YEAR'S ACTIVITIES

By Mrs. Edna Blithen
McKay-PROGRESS—The first meeting of the Tigard-McKay Extension Unit met at Mrs. Joe Taylor's Sept. 17. The meeting regrouped the unit for the coming year. Reports by the department chairmen were given. Mrs. E. E. McNott on finance, Mrs. Herman Metzentine, on legislative, Mrs. Harry Wright on Azalea House and Mrs. Joe Taylor on ACWW. This department of Washington county units of Home Extension has been mainly responsible for sending Mrs. Edgar Leming of North Plains to Denmark this summer. Mrs. Leming will return home in November, when, in a suitable place, a complete story of her trip will be given by her with the aid of motion pictures taken on the trip.

Azalea House is another important item this year when it is hoped the balance of the building fund will be completed and a girls dormitory for 50 will begin at Oregon State College.

There were 27 attending this first meeting with five new members.

The October meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Chester Robinson Oct. 17. The project, home recreation with Mrs. E. L. Trevarthen and Mrs. John Altenhofen.

The year projects will be: November, Meal Planning by the county agent; Dec., Heart Disease by Hazel Engler and Grace Livingston; Jan., Vitamin B, by county agent; Feb., New Textiles, by Mildred Stevens and Margaret Gibb; March, The Art of Conversation, by county agent; April, Freezing Fruit and Vegetables, by Mrs. Leonard Stark and Mrs. J. Stark and May, given by the county agent, Dry Cleaning at Home.
