

GRANDMA BLANTON'S DEATH SHOCK TO HER LOCAL FRIENDS

By Mrs. Edna Blethen

McKAY-PROGRESS — Elma Osborn Blanton, born November, 1875 passed away on September 26, 1950. Death of Grandma Blanton came as a surprise to her many friends here.

She had gone by plane to the home of a daughter, Mrs. Fredrick Zurburg of Lafayette, Louisiana. On September 18, she suffered a heart attack and lingered over a week. She was buried in Silver Brook Cemetery, Anderson, South Carolina. She is survived by five children.

She had made her home with a son Paul Blanton, 2725 Denny road for nearly a year. Mr. Blanton returned by plane Sunday.

EMERGENCY OPERATION
Darrel Rabe returned home Sept. 26 from the hospital where he had undergone an emergency appendectomy.

TAD POLES PASSED
Ten of the McKay students taking swimming lessons passed the tad pole test and will take lessons on Tuesday.

The rest will continue their Friday night classes.
ROOM MOTHERS
Room mothers have been chosen for all but the first grade.

They are: second grade, Mrs. C. C. Chadwick; third and fourth, Mrs. F. Fanno, Mrs. J. Farmer and Mrs. R. Payne; fifth and sixth, Mrs. John Van Hyning, Mrs. L. Lucas, Mrs. Strayer; seventh, Mr. and Mrs. L. McKee; eighth, Mrs. B. Blethen.

Mrs. Lance Strayer is chairman.

Co. Demo Leaders Plan Rally For Candidate List

The executive committee of the Washington County Central Democratic Committee met at the home of Chairman Ruth Varner on Monday, October 2. Eleven were in attendance.

It was reported that the "voters guide" designed by the State Headquarters, and presently distributed by members of the Central committee is being well received. This guide gives prospective voters the number of their precincts, Democratic precinct committee members, voting place and the name and address of the local registrar. It also gives concise information regarding absentee ballots.

Hordes of Democrats are reported registering throughout the county, as a result of the vigorous campaign for registration put on by the county central committee.

Candidates for the House of Representatives, James Schick and Al Bobbitt, candidate for county commissioner, Sid Jarrell, and candidate for county coroner Gram Young are reported making a vigorous and effective campaign.

Their personal campaigns will be augmented by advertising paid for by the Central Committee, as well as work by the members of the committee.

The next meeting of the Central Committee will be held at Forest Grove, on October 16th, 1950 at 8:00 o'clock p. m. This meeting will be a Democratic Rally, and will be addressed by candidates. The program will be announced later as will the place of the meeting, tentatively set for the City Hall at Forest Grove.
