GUEST EMBARKS FOR LIFE AS SOUTH AFRICAN MISSIONARY

By Mrs. W. A. Bunnell

WEST SLOPE — Mr. and Mrs. John Dykes were hosts to Mrs. Dykes cousin, Miss Maxine Moss, Monday evening on the eve of her departure to Belgium, Tuesday morning, where she will take training as a missionary for a later post in Africa.

Miss Moss is sponsored by the National Holiness Missionary Society, and formerly taught school in Union Gap, Washington. From New York, Miss Moss will take a ship to Rotterdam, where she will be met by representatives of the society, and will then go to Brussels, to spend nine months in training.

In South Africa, she will teach grade school work to the younger natives, with added sidelines of minor agriculture. She also has a small degree of practical nursing to aid in her work.

Her home will be in a compound ninety miles from modern equipment, such as electricity, hospitals, etc. She plans to stay about five years.

GUEST FROM HONOLULU

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Wood had a house guest last week, Mr. Wood's sister, Miss Ruth Wood, of Honolulu. Miss Wood flew here early in the week and left on Saturday to visit other relatives in California.

Mrs. Wood's mother, Mrs. J. C. Green, who makes her home with the Woods, is among the large number who are making the "Town and Country" tour sponsored by the Journal, in Portland, and is now in the east. Mrs. Green plans to return home about October 20th.

Miss Ruth Wood is secretary to the Pacific Club in Honolulu.

RETURNED TO HOME

Mrs. George Keller, who was seriously ill in Good Samaritan hospital, has recovered sufficiently to move to the home of relatives, where she is continuing to improve in health.

FOURTEEN TURKEYS

The turkey shoot sponsored on Saturday by Gabel school was successful in the eyes of those who attended, though attendance was cut down by the inclement weather.

Eight hams and fourteen turkeys were awarded those who made winning shots in the competition.

Twenty-three guests were invited.

Foliated Shrubs Heighten Hopes Of Mild Winter

WEST SLOPE—West Slope was well into the path of the rain and hail storm that swept the east end of the county, Friday. Hail, 2½ inches deep, was left in many places. Gardens were flattened and shrubs knocked loose; roadsides left deeply rutted; gravel from paths and roads floated away by the swift water currents.

For some reason, however, many residents have remarked the fact that trees and shrubs are holding their foliage much later this year, than usual, many that are bare at this time of year, still retaining most of their foliage. Hope was expressed that this might be a forecast of a mild winter.

GAME IN CORVALLIS

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hood and daughter Donna, drove to Corvallis Saturday to attend the football game there, returning Saturday evening. Mr. Hood spent two days in the hospital last week for a general checkup, and is feeling much better, now.

NEIGHBORHOOD POTLUCK

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bunnell entertained at a neighborhood potluck dinner Wednesday noon honoring the birthday of their daughter Mrs. Harold Mattoon. Fifteen guests were present.

Mrs. Mattoon was hostess at a dinner Tuesday evening in honor of her parents' 37th wedding anniversary.

CAMPFIRE SPONSORS

Plans to sponsor Blue Bird and Camp Fire troops for the West Slope area were made at the board meeting of the local Lions Club at Frank Cundari's office on Monday night of last week.

The Blue Birds will be lead by Mrs. George Helt, and the Camp Fire group by Mrs. H. G. Sorenson. Other matters of business routine were taken up by the club, to be revealed at the next general meeting of the organization.

Mult. Co. Sheriff Tells Effects Of Atomic Bombing

WEST SLOPE — Members and friends of the Broadmoor Women's club paid interested attention to Sheriff Terry Shrunk, of Multnomah county, Thursday afternoon, as he told of the immediate and after-effects of an atom bomb dropped on an imaginary spot near the heart of Portland.

What to do and what to expect in such a case, were outlined by Sheriff Shrunk, and fire departments, and hospitals and similar quick-aid elements, were advised to get into line for quick action. He also suggested that the women of the group take a Red Cross course in first aid.

He allayed some fear on the part of local residents, by telling of the screening effect of the hills between West Slope and Portland.

Harry Seabold, and Arthur Ireland, political candidates in the forthcoming election, spoke briefly on their views and aims for the future, and later answered queries from the audience mainly pertaining to the vexing road problem.

The next meeting of the club will be a musical meeting.

Lass Wears Lei With Authentic Hawaiian Dress

The pupils in Mrs. Graham's kindergarten, received a treat at Monday morning's, "Public Speaking" class when little Caroline Wood appeared in a real Hawaiian dress, and lei brought her last week by her aunt Miss Ruth Wood, from Honolulu.

The lei was of real carnations and the dress of the type used by the Island girls for parties. Caroline carried a boy doll also brought by her aunt.

On one of last weeks class days, the youngsters learned a "Kitten" song, which was illustrated by a small white kitten brought by Robby Taylor, the little animal calmly lapping milk as the children sang.

The pupils are busy this week getting ready for Halloween.
