Beaverton Lady Enters Exhibits In Antique Show

Mrs. Cora Bell Walker of Beaverton entered a table setting of rare glass baskets in the Antiques Collectors Exposition held in Portland on November 8 and 9 at Hotel Portland.

Mrs. Walker's display was one of 75 exhibits collected from world-wide sources, among which were other collections of art glass; table settings of Dresden, Meissen, early Canton, and Copenhagen china; antique French toule; early hooked and Oriental rugs; and one of the finest collections of figurines in the Northwest, including one of Bonnie Prince Charles of Scotland, dated 1750.

The exposition was under the auspices of the Catholic Social Council, with Mrs. William P. Sharkey of Portland as general chairman. Entire net proceeds will be diverted to the benefit of youth camp activities.

Mrs. Lulu Perry Gunderson, recognized authority on early glass and prominent art objects dealer, was counselor for the exhibits.

Now you Know!

The answers to everyday insurance problems*

By Leonard Adams

QUESTION: We intend to take two valuable movie cameras on our vacation trip. We want to know if our present residence theft policy can be changed to cover possible theft of the cameras while we are on our trip.

ANSWER: Yes, such a clause can be added but you should consult your agent about a "Camera Floater" which will protect you in case of damage to or other loss of the cameras besides theft.

"If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind."

Bowl Of Ants

Geo. N. Taylor

Yes, Townsend ate a bowl of ants that day he was initiated and made one of the head men of that far-off tribe of Central American Indians. In college back in the states, Townsend had been a high man. After college came four years of Hebrew and Greek. Next, the door opened for him to go to these Indians. He put their speech into writing, translated the Bible, taught them to read it and lived Christ out before them.

SUM IT UP—
On a day Townsend took Christ as God the Savior who died for him. Later he turned his life over to the Lord to be used when and where, as might be. Out of it, this Indian tribe was brought in. Like Townsend, a vast company have died to self that Christ might be set forth at home or abroad. May you also believe away deep in your heart and be saved. And then like Townsend, die to self, that Christ may work out through you.
