

4H MEMBERS GIVE VIEWS ON WORK AT ACHIEVEMENT NIGHT

By Mrs. Edna Blithen
McKAY-PROGRESS — Achievement night for 4-H members here was Tuesday November 14. About 30 members were present to receive awards. Leaders were honored also. With Harris Hansen, Jr. as chairman a member from each group gave talks on their club work and activities.

Mrs. Ann Butler's cookerettes furnished a musical note. Shirley Marugg discussed "what 4-H means to me", which should extend to every 4-H member. Stanley Marugg also gave a talk, mostly of how important a complete scrap book can be as a member continues 4-H work. Stanley is now attending Oregon State college. He has been a member 6 years, a leader 4 years.

Joe Cox and Margaret Skaar, county agents, gave a pat on the shoulder for work well done by both members and leaders. They gave pins and certificates.

A. H. Abts of Hillsboro brought down his films taken at the fair also selected short comics. These he showed after giving a comical bit of poetry.

Refreshments were sold to the guests with a net profit of over $12 for a summer school scholarship.
