Reception Fetes Dec. 9 Rites Of Byrd-Vasileff

Miss Dorothy Vasileff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mayfield, became the bride of Anderson I. (Andy) Byrd, in a double ring ceremony, December 9th. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Page. The bride chose a dress of white gold threaded wool with black velvet accessories. Mrs. Page, her only attendant wore blue with dusty pink accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Byrd were honored with a reception held at the home of the brides parents in Beaverton. Eighty-five friends and relatives showered the happy couple with many lovely gifts and good wishes. The cake was cut by Mrs. Florence Snider, sister of the bride. Coffee was served by Mrs. Ray Bird. Mrs. Archie Olsen was in charge of the guest book with Miss Catherine Hibbert helping with the gifts. Mrs. Connie Enger received the guests. Mr. Al Byrd, brother of the groom and Bryce Coleman attended the punch bowls.

Mrs. Garnet Snider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mayfield and young son Thomas Alan who arrived Nov. 13 at the Dalles, Ore., were here to attend the nuptials.

The couple will reside in Beaverton.

Holiday Traffic Requires Caution To Avoid Danger

Joint warnings of heavy traffic, snow and ice-covered roads, and other dangerous driving conditions during the Christmas holiday were issued today by Governor Douglas McKay and Secretary of State Earl T. Newberry.

As Governor McKay urged the wholehearted cooperation of residents with law enforcement officers in the campaign to save lives during the Christmas holiday, rather than waste them.

"I earnestly hope," McKay said, "that each resident of our state, and each visitor, will assume individual responsibility for avoiding accidents of all kinds. If we do this we really can keep the Christmas spirit—and all of us—alive this year."

This weekend sees the beginning of an almost continuous week-long holiday. Secretary Newberry reminded. With two successive three-day holidays for most residents, many Oregonians will take long and dangerous trips over unfamiliar roads to visit relatives and friends. Unless cautious driving is exercised by all motorists, the crowded roads could make the holiday season one of highway slaughter.

December, the secretary remarked, is always a potential black month for accidents. Last year 50 persons lost their lives in December highway mishaps. With the year's fatal accidents already well above those of 1949, December might push 1950 into a new traffic killing record, the secretary concluded.

WINS MAJOR RATING

Capt. Robert G. Shepherd, U. S. Army transportation corps at Fort Eustis, Va., was distinguished by a Major rating Nov. 20. A graduate of Beaverton H. S. Shepherd had lived at Aloha, from where he enlisted second World War. Recently he was called back into service.

Son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Caviness, he married their daughter Helen, 10 years ago. They have 2 children.

PNG PARTY AND ELECTION

The Past Noble Grand's club held its regular meeting and Xmas party, at the IOOF hall following a six-thirty pot luck supper on Thursday, Dec. 14. Election of officers named Frankie Butts as president; Mae Lusk, vice president and Mrs. Carl Gestring re-elected as secretary treasurer. There were twenty-seven present, fourteen PNG. The tables and a tree were decorated by the committee of Mrs. Flo Elbert, Myrtle Hardman and Miss Virginia Chamberlain.

The birth anniversary of Mrs. Myrtle Hardman was observed with a decorated cake and gift.

Choir Of 110 Gives Annual Song Concert

BEAVERTON HIGH COMBINES CHORUS
AND GLEE CLUBS

The Beaverton high school annual Christmas concert will feature a 110-voice choir, composed of the girls' and boys' glee clubs and freshman chorus, directed by Eleanor Duncan and Melvin B. Wells.

Featured arrangements are "Go Tell It on the Mountains" with solo by Jolly Ditzler, freshman, and Ken Darby's "Twas the Night Before Christmas."

The concert will begin at 8 p. m., Thursday, December 21, in the high school auditorium.

Members of the choir will form a procession singing the traditional "Westminster Carol" wearing maroon robes.

They will be led by Mrs. Eleanor Duncan in "Twelve Days of Christmas," an English folk song, and "Fantasy for Christmas" by Shaw.

The boys' glee club, directed by Melvin B. Wells, will present "Prayer Perfect" by Stenson and "The Sleigh" by Kootz.

The freshman chorus selections include "The Christmas Hymn" and "O How Joyfully," a Sicilian hymn.

These vocal groups, accompanied by Patricia Madden, junior, have been practicing since early November.

There will be no seating during numbers, and people with small children are requested to sit near the door. No admission will be charged.

He Alone So Born

"I have no husband. How can I then become a Mother?" So asks the Virgin Mary of the Angel Gabriel sent down from heaven to tell her she is to become a mother and bear a Son. Gabriel tells her that the Holy Spirit is to come upon her and the power of the Highest is to overshadow her, wherefore her offspring is to be called the Son of God—God being His Father. Bible, Lk. 1st.

CAME TO SAVE YOU

Because God yearned to have you with him forever, he sent Christ, his only-born Son to die for your sins and clear your page. Having died for you, God raised Christ from death, and the grave to dwell with himself and power you in new days and new ways. Receive Christ into your heart to give you new life and this Christmas will be more than a Christmas to you. It will be your birthday into eternal life. New life in and Judgment Day out.
