Puppy Present Poses Problem; Prepare People

Anti-cruelty forces and veterinary medical leaders remind people who might plan to bestow a rambunctious puppy or kitten as a Christmas present for some youngsters that such a present poses quite a problem, particularly if the parents or other people concerned are not properly prepared.

To be sure that the gift animal finds the sort of home it deserves, such a gift-bearer must first seek the consent of the parents and determine whether or not such a present would be appreciated. And for the dog's or cat's sake, it will find an unhappy existence in a home where it is resentfully or grudgingly accepted.

Pet owners who withhold love from household animals are considered poor risks because they are not likely to provide the right kind of care nor the proper consideration for health.

Sponsored by St. Cecilia's the Verboort Minstrel will be presented at the Merle Davies school auditorium on December 28 at 8:15 p. m. An entire new show has been arranged for the occasion. The Verboort Minstrels are famous in the other end of the county where they have been playing to packed houses for the last four seasons.

They bring back the rollicking tunes of yesterday, some of the corny old quips and some snappy routines. To spice the program the talents of Anita Pinovi, and Dick Kokich have been added for the evening.

The voices of Charles Moore, Carol Van Dyke, The Francis Twins, Betty Van Dyke, Jens Robinson, Eleanor Van Loo, and a rousing chorus will highlight the program. Experienced end men provide the evening mirth.

It is hoped that a good crowd will appear for the occasion.

St. Cecilia Has Midnight Mass Christmas Eve

St. Cecilia's Catholic church, of Beaverton will observe Midnight Mass on Christmas eve, at 12 p. m., announces Father Anthony Gerace, pastor, under special permission granted to the archdiocese by Archbishop Edward D. Howard, of Portland.

This relaxes an archdiocese rule forbidding such occasions, at a time of the solemn closing of the Holy Year, with Pope Pius XII officially closing the Holy Door in Rome which he opened at the beginning of the jubilee year.

According to the Archbishop, the element of special prayers for mankind should be emphasized. Because of the grave threat to the peace of the world, which confronts the nation at this time, public supplication is declared to be opportune.

All pastors in the archdiocese and priests in charge of public or semi-public oratories may avail themselves of the privilege if they desire.

Masses on Christmas Day will be held at 7 a. m., 8:30 a. m., and 10 a. m.

Merry Christmas

The Night will be hushed (save the Mother Wind's whispered lullaby) . . . and though Santa steps gingerly to the chimney top, nary a little one will hear.

The Morn will bring Joy . . . Surprise . . . Dancing Stars in the eyes of tots well schooled in the ways of Santa. It will bring the re-uniting of friends and family - well wishing for the Holiday Season - and prayers for Peace, the World over.

With those prayers go our wishes for a Merry Christmas . . . Peace, Happiness and Prosperity to all our friends, now, tomorrow and in the years to come!
