Raasch-Bartholomew Nuptials Performed Here Last Month

Recently returned from their honeymoon in Seattle and Vancouver, B. C., Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Raasch are residing on Walker road in Beaverton waiting to move into their new home.

The couple were wed in a candlelight ceremony December 29 at the First Methodist church by Rev. Horace H. Mounts. The new Mrs. Raasch is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Bartholomew of Beaverton. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Myrtle Raasch, 274 Eighth St., Beaverton.

The bride wore white slipper satin with a white satin head piece with seed pearls and a fingertip veil at her wedding and carried two white orchids on a white prayer book. The church was decorated with two baskets of white mums, ferns and candles.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Raasch . . . Make home here

Mr. Bartholomew gave his daughter away and she was attended by Mrs. Jean Daniels of Vallejo, Calif., matron of honor. Mrs. Daniels wore gold satin and carried white carnations and small white mums. Bridesmaids were Ann Bastian, Beaverton and Donna Harvey of Bonny Slope. They wore royal blue satin gowns and carried white mums.

Don Turner of Beaverton was Mr. Raasch's best man.

Candlelighters were Dorothy Christensen, Aloha, and Melba Lee Beeler of Beaverton. Ushers were George Jett, Milwaukie, and John Graf of Portland, Mrs. Rowena Ellis was musician and she accompanied Dorothy Christensen who sang Because and Always.

Reception was held in the church parlors and Mrs. E. L. Muse, grandmother of the bride, poured. Mrs. Henry Bastian cared for the punch and Kathleen Ackerman and Betty Moshofsky cut the cake.

Margaret Powne was in charge of gifts and Marilyn Turner was custodian of the guest book.

Mr. Raasch's mother wore grape colored tissue faille with black accessories. Out of town guests included Goldie Reddish, Twin Falls, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Daniels, Vallejo, Calif.; Mrs. Wilma Dalley, Mrs. Emma Freel and Marjorie Cressy of Hillsboro, and Verna Losil of Oreno.

The bride wore navy blue faille with red accessories for her going-away ensemble. The bride's mother wore plum colored tissue faille with black accessories.

The bride graduated in 1949 from Beaverton high school and works for Standard Insurance Co., in Portland. Mr. Raasch graduated from high school in Denver, Colo., in 1945 and served 14 months in the navy. He is employed by W. P. Fuller Paint Co., in Portland.

MRS. F. S. STATTER DIES
Frederick Statter, son of F. J. Statter, of Canyon Road, who spent the holidays here with his father, has returned to school at Eugene. Mrs. Statter, wife of the elder Statter, passed away just before Christmas, and funeral services were held at the Portland Crematorium on December 23. She was afflicted with leukemia, her condition not being discovered until late stages of the disease. Following a bout with pneumonia, tests were made, which revealed her condition. She is survived by her husband, and son and a number of relatives in Nebraska and Calif.

ORIENTAL THEME FEATURE AT BEREAN CLASS DINNER

Oriental theme surrounded regular social and business meeting last Friday evening of the Loyal Berean class of the Beaverton Church of Christ in the church basement.

Hosts at the gathering were Rev. and Mrs. George Springer and Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Higgins.

Chow mein dinner was served and the basement was decorated Chinese lanterns, figurines and ming trees.

It was reported the class is working on a fund raising plan to furnish drapes for the church auditorium.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Ten of her schoolmates attended a surprise birthday party honoring Marcella O'Meara, 437 S. W. Sixth St., Tuesday evening.

The honoree is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. O'Meara and all the girls attend St. Mary's of the Valley school.
