(Journal Special Service.) DALLAS, Texas, April PL-The morning trains brought thousands of people into Dallas to attend the reunion of Confederate Veterans. Twenty thousand people - veterans and their friends reached the city up to midnight, and the congested condition of the down-town streets this morning gave indications that today's crowd would double that of yesterday. Hotels and boarding houses were filled last night and but for the excellent arrangements and foresight of the committee, which furnished sleeping quarters to hundreds of persons in private residences and public buildings, many of the old fighters would have been compelled to walk the streets. The interest of the day centered in the convention, which organized for business this morning in Machinery Hall. The great hall was packed to the doors, when, after prayer, the gathering was called to order. The veterans listened to cordial addresses of greeting on behalf of the state, the City of Dallas, the local camps of Confederate Vet-

PAUL, April 23 .- It seldom happens that the climate of the Northwest indulges in the vagaries that have prevailed in this latitude the last two days. A cloudy and threatening sky this morning gave promise of rain for this section of Minnesota. North Dakota points reported a drizzling rain, and an excess of FOR BURGLARY moisture, but South Dakota is still dry Several points in Southern Minnesots and South Dakota report damage to crops from drying and hot winds, but the damage is not serious. North Dakota and Northern Minnesota have as yet felt no Il effects from the drouth: Rochester, in Southern Minnesota, reports a terrible wind blowing today and no rain in sight. At Pipestone, in Southwestern Minnesota, light showers fell last night, accompanied by lightning, fog and heavy clouds today, and the crops are in splendid condition. At Mayville, N. D., a severe snow storm is prevailing, seeding is delayed by the storm and business is generally impeded. The thermometer at o'clock tonight stood at 46, a drop of 20 degrees in four hours. A high wind from the northwest was blowing and a light rain falling. A bliggard prevailing in North Dakota is moving rapidly eastward,

RUTHLESS SLAUGHTER.

Fulton Park residents are indignant over the manner in which game and other birds are being ruthlessly slaughtered at that place on Sundays by men and boys from town, and they cannot say anything too harsh against the authorities for not enforcing the City ordinance covering this subject. The game warden also came in for a share of censure. It is said that a good-sized army of men and boys, equipped with shotguns are there regularly each Sunday and a regular fusilade is kept up from morning until night. The song-bird is not even spared when pheasants and quail cannot be found. Manufactures Growing.

Oregon has made great strides in the manufacturing line the past year. The people are learning that to patronize home industry is to build up their home country. During the past year Oregon people have done this more than ever. A large number of manufacturers from the East are looking to Oregon and have asked for information concerning the country. Portland is fast becoming the furniture manufacturing center of the Pacific Coast, it having nearly doubled its product from 1900 to 1901. Secretary McIssac of the Manufacturers' Association states that the product of the industries of the state for the year 1901 amounted to nearly $60,000,000.
