Young Man Cannot Get Consent of Girl's Guardian.

W. E. Spencer, a young man in the employ of W. H. McMorris, of this city, is wooing under difficulties not usually encountered at the launching out upon the sea of matrimony.

The girl he wants to wed, and who has given her promise that she will wed him, is in the care and custody of the Boys and Girls' Aid Society. W. T. Gardner, superintendent of the institution, is her legal guardian, and has placed his 17-year-old charge in a Christian family until she becomes of age. Her name is Nellie Lanthrup, and her father, is L. Lanthrup, is in Eastern Oregon. The father has given his consent to the match, but W. T. Gardner refuses to sanction the marriage.

WILEY COMING BACK

Requisition Papers for the Forger Finally Arrive.

After considerable delay, the requisition papers on the Governor of Washington for the return here of Frank Wiley, the forger, arrived at police headquarters this morning.

The delay in issuing the papers is not explained. Had Wiley been financially able or had he influential friends, he might have secured his release on a writ of habeas corpus and probably escaped while the police were waiting for the requisition.

WILD GIRL

(Journal Special Service.) SALEM, Or., April 25.—The assistance of the local police was yesterday invoked by a Mrs. Sutton, who desires the return of her wayward daughter, Anna, from Tacoma, whither she is reported to have gone to secure the excitement which Salem lacks. The girl was recently the cause of a fierce fight between Ed Carter and Ed Gregory in this city, for which the latter served 90 days.

The girl is said to be hard to manage and is given to roaming the streets at unseasonable hours.

OREGON CITY.

(Journal Special Service.) OREGON CITY, April 25.—F. S. Baker has a severe attack of smallpox at Oswego. He caught the infection in a logging camp on the lower Columbia. Dr. Sommer is the attending physician. The quarantined Oregon City cases, which are of a mild type, are progressing favorably.

The Fidelity team of Portland and the Oregon City team will play baseball at Willamette Park Sunday afternoon, if the weather is favorable.

The Citizens' candidates addressed a fairly good audience at Multnomah last night. Decrees in three Multnomah County divorces were entered in the Circuit Court this afternoon. A Portland attorney appeared for all three plaintiffs. The first contestant was Martha Schumacher vs. Charles Schumacher, for a decree on the ground of desertion. The defendant now lives at North Yakima, Wash.

Up to noon today, Sheriff Cooke had collected $134,641.01 taxes, and issued $308 receipts. The tax on the assessment roll is about $166,000. It is believed that the delinquent list will be unusually small this year.

PROSPEROUS OREGON.

J. W. Minto, Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue, is back from a three weeks' trip in Eastern Oregon. He said this morning that, although the season was backward there, and even more so than here, and despite the frequent frosts about Baker City, Sumpter, La Grande, etc., he considered crop prospects good. He considers Eastern Oregon prosperous and says that he found collections easy.

MERCHANTS COMPLAIN

Their Goods Damaged By Lack of Street Sprinkling.

The dusty condition of Portland's streets is simply disgraceful. Dust is not a substance that can be completely eliminated, but it can certainly be so controlled that the annoyance can be reduced to a minimum. It is supposed that the streets are sprinkled regularly, but they are not.

Portland merchants, who place their wares on the sidewalks are entitled to protection. It is no wonder that they are loudly protesting for the negligence of that part of the city government which is popularly supposed to keep the dust down, but which utterly fails to do so. The merchant is entitled to protest when he sees his wares ruined in this manner.

Nor is this all. The dust blows into the open doors and works its way through the windows, greatly injuring all classes of merchandise. It is perfectly proper to inquire how much longer this sort of thing is to continue. There is too much dependence on Oregon rains to subdue the dust. This should not be so. The matter is "up to" the committee on street sprinkling and cleaning. What is it going to do about it?

THE CAPITAL CITY

(Journal Special Service.) SALEM, April 25.—Charles Lovely, aged 18 years, of Umatilla County, was yesterday received at the State Insane Asylum. Sheriff Durbin has turned over about $12,000 more of the collections on the 1901 tax roll to County Treasurer Downing.

After a week's delay owing to the absence of stone, work has been again resumed on the Federal postoffice building here. Two carloads of stone arrived from Ashland on Wednesday.

Circuit Judge Boise cut the knot of marriage in two places yesterday. Laura Hibbard was freed of the encumbrance of G. B. Hibbard and given leave to support the two children of the unlucky union, and Elizabeth McFarlane was also given permission to pursue her way minus the company of Andrew McFarlane. The latter persons reside at Hubbard.

Pauline Gray was granted a divorce from Charles Henry Gray by Judge Beard this morning. Mrs. Gray testified that her husband treated her cruelly, struck her with a stick, and on one occasion threw a heavy chair at her head, missing her, and breaking a picture which hung on the wall.

'ROUND TOWN.

The total amount collected by the Salvation Army in the self-denial week was $2800. The members of Trinity Church have at last decided to sell their property on the northeast corner of Sixth and Oak streets. They have appointed F. V. Andrews & Co. as agents, who will divide the property and entertain offers for separate lots.

After a residence in Portland of over 20 years, E. W. Moore, the photographer, has decided to remain, so he is building a residence at East Seventeenth and Ankeny streets.

James Edmunds will teach Sunday's lesson of the Interdenominational Sunday school lesson study tomorrow from 12:15 to 1 P. M., in the Y. M. C. A. building. Those wishing to prepare themselves for next Sunday's work will kindly attend.

John S. Montgomery, an engineer, today filed a petition in bankruptcy; liabilities, $229. The Portland Club is pitted against the Monograms at the league grounds tomorrow (Saturday). With a fine day there should be a big crowd, and good ball should be played. The game will be called at 3:30. Admission, 25 cents. No extra charge for the grandstand.

BAD MAN

Pug Ryan, Slayer of Many Men, on His Way to Trial.

L. A. Scott, alias "Pug" Ryan, the last of a gang of six murderers and highwaymen, is safely lodged in a steel cell in the city jail, en route to Breckenridge, Summit County, Colorado, to answer for many crimes.

He arrived here from Seattle this afternoon in charge of Sheriff Jerr G. Detweiler and deputy. Both the latter were heavily armed with revolvers and a sawed-off, double-barreled shotgun. The prisoner was loaded down with shackles. Ryan was arrested in Seattle recently on suspicion of being implicated in a hold-up and murder.

In 1898 Colorado and Oklahoma were terrorized by a gang of hold-up men and murderers. It is reported that Ryan alone has killed four or five men in Oklahoma and Colorado, and that he has been arrested in several hold-up cases. While fleeing from a posse last December, a terrible battle ensued, the fugitive killing a Deputy Sheriff and two other men accompanying him. Another posse continued the search and lost two men.

Nothing further was heard of the criminal publicly until his capture in Seattle. Of the gang of six desperadoes, Ryan was the only one who succeeded in escaping to the Coast. Three of the others were killed and the other two captured. Ryan is small of stature, but has a vicious and repulsive countenance. He is smooth-faced and about 35 years of age. Sheriff Detweiler is very reticent about his movements, and the prisoner is kept in solitary confinement so he can not communicate with any of his pals who might be in the Northwest.

SMITH'S TRIAL

(Scripps-McRae News Association.) MANILA, April 25.—The trial of General Smith, commanding the troops at Samar, for ordering Major Waller to kill natives without trial, began today before a board of officers of the highest rank in the Philippines.

The general pleaded not guilty. Colonel Woodruff, for the accused, forestalled the prosecution by admitting that a majority of the accusations were true. His client did not desire any prisoners, and had ordered Major Waller to kill the natives and burn their houses.

The age limit was made at 10, because many boys carried arms against the Americans. Lieutenant Porter Day testified to the order.

Major Waller will be put on the stand tomorrow.

Will Quit Railroad.

Announcement was made today that Charles E. Bockmann, who for a long time has been the efficient city passenger agent of the Chicago & Northwestern, will leave the service of that company May 1, and that he is to permanently quit railroading. It is reported that Mr. Bockmann intends to go into business with his father, Frederick C. Bockmann.

Boy Badly Injured.

Jay Downing, son of O. P. Downing, is in a very critical condition at his home, Milwaukee and Beacon streets, as the result of an unprovoked assault committed upon him by another boy named Pletsold, who, it is alleged, is a member of the gang of Brooklyn boys who are making life miserable for the residents of the vicinity.

In company with another boy, young Downing was walking up the street, when without warning young Pletsold threw a stone at him, striking his eye and breaking his glasses. Downing was taken to a physician. It will take some time to determine whether he will lose his sight or not.

Residents of Brooklyn are indignant over the incident, and say that harsh measures will have to be meted out to the gang before it is broken up.

Replanking the Avenue.

The replanking of Union avenue between East Oak and East Burnside streets, is well under way. Already two of the blocks are nearly completed. The action of the Portland Railway Company in renewing the planking in the middle of the street between what was formerly the company track is causing comment. It has been a number of years since the Portland Railway Company has run cars on Union avenue south of East Burnside street, and when the street was replanked a few years ago the company took up the unused track. Now the company is replanking its former portion of the street with small, narrow planks, and it looks as if they will make an attempt to hold the franchise anyway.

Home Filling Up.

The number of people who are making application to enter the new Odd Fellows' Home near Knottworth is surprising the board of directors. If the present rate of applications keeps up all the rooms in the Home will have been selected. The following applications for membership in to the Home have been approved: Judson Howell, of Oregon Lodge, No. 3; George B. Henry, of Samaritan Lodge, No. 2; Mrs. Harriet Baker, of Crystal Rebekah Lodge, No. 56; W. G. Harris, of Friendship Lodge, No. 5; Henry Reams, of Covenant, No. 12.

New Lodge of Maccabees.

At present there are three lodges already organized at University Park. The fourth one, comprising the Knights of the Maccabees, has just been formed. Its charter members are as follows: Dr. Rosster, D. S. Walton, Edward Deady, P. F. Walker, W. J. Yall, H. E. Smith, C. N. Walker, G. H. Hemstock, P. Young. The new lodge is called Portsmouth Tent.

Road Work.

Road Supervisor D. V. Hart is now grading and straightening the Slough road below Peninsula. This part of the district has received but little attention in the past few years, though after the work from C street in Peninsula to St. Johns has been completed it will make one of the nicest Summer drives in Portland. To go from the city north to the Vancouver bridges, then west on the Slough road to St. Johns, then back along the boulevard which follows along the river to the city, affords a good drive.

STRIKE NEARLY OVER

(Scripps-McRae News Association.) SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—The Genry street road resumed operations this morning, the strikers having returned to work on the company acceptance of their terms.

The directors of the United Railroads are in session again, awaiting advice from the Eastern owners. It is understood they will concede to the strikers a majority of their demands, except the recognition of the union. It is expected the strike will be settled by tonight.

JUST A MATTER OF MILLIONS

(Scripps-McRae News Association.) NEW YORK, April 25.—The stockholders of the United States Steel Corporation have received a circular from President Schwab, giving the details of the proposed plan for readjusting its capitalization.

It is estimated by the executive committee that the expenditure of about $25,000,000 for improvement will effect a saving in manufacture of $10,000,000 annually, and increase the output, adding $10,000,000 to $15,000,000 to the yearly profit. It provides for this expenditure and the $25,000,000 obligations outstanding, it is proposed to sell $50,000,000 of stock in new 5 per cent mortgage gold bonds.

Reissues of Tariffs.

Supplement No. 38 of the westbound tariffs issued by the Transcontinental Freight Bureau has appeared here. It is merely a reissue of tariffs previously in effect and names no new rates. It is probably the last one that will appear, for the next issue, which will probably appear in Portland about May 15, will be an entirely new tariff, superseding all the old rates. This is already in the hands of the Eastern printers.

SELLWOOD.

Miss Ruth Venville, sister of Arthur Venville, will leave Saturday for a visit to Seattle.

John Liles, the barber, has sold his shop to a man named French from Portland, who will take possession Monday. Mr. Liles has accepted a position with the Portland Woolen Mills.

A golf tournament is being held today on the Sellwood golf links. A number of creek players from throughout the Northwest are engaged for the trophies. The tournament will last for four days.

Howard Melson, clerk at Dr. Sellwood's drug store, was visiting his parents in Silverton Sunday. He returned home Monday.

An illustrated lecture on the Yellowstone National Park will be given at the Methodist church next Tuesday.

Mr. Hirschberger, the shoemaker, is reported somewhat improved today.

The last meeting of the Willburg Literary Society this season will be held Saturday evening.

Frank Sellwood, the dentist, has moved his residence to Portland.

The Jansen family have moved to Fifth street and Umatilla avenue from Nebraska. Mr. Jansen has purchased some property on Umatilla avenue but has not taken possession yet.

Great preparations are being made by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Sellwood Sub-Board of Trade for the dedication ceremonies of the Portland Woolen Mills at Fireman's Hall, May 2. A fine literary and musical program has been arranged and a banquet will be served in the evening. A charge of 50 cents a plate has been made for the banquet.
