

OPPOSES FURNISH Salem Journal Supports Chamberlain.

(Journal Special Service.)
SALEM, April 25.—Here is what the Salem Capital Journal thinks of the candidacy for Governor of Mr. Furnish, the banker from Pendleton. Although supporting the full Republican county ticket of Marion County and the full Republican state ticket, with the exception of the State Printer, Mr. Whitney of Albany, the Journal is evidently unable to down the candidacy of Mr. Furnish and in its issue of today states why it will support George E. Chamberlain's candidacy for the gubernatorial office. Under the heading, "Reasons Why Republicans Should Vote for Chamberlain for Governor," it says:

"To begin with, it is a farce and a pretense to claim that there is a great political battle on the old party lines pending in Oregon. Beyond the election of two Congressmen and a United States Senator, the Roosevelt administration is in no way involved in the Oregon election. The election of state officers is a business matter that concerns the taxpayers far more than it does the managers of Federal politics, and the inauguration of business methods instead of graft is of greatest importance to this commonwealth.

"Multnomah County contains about one-fourth the voters of Oregon and in that county there is no Democratic ticket. The fight is squarely between two factions of the Republican party. One of those factions by dictatorial methods drove the other faction out of the county convention. That faction assumed control of the state convention and put its slate through that body, employing the unit rule with 67 delegates to make any combination it saw fit.

"That faction was in control of the situation in the state convention and will be in control of the state government if it succeeds in carrying out its program. This faction delivered its goods to Mr. Furnish and nominated him, and if he is elected he will deliver his goods to it. Shall this deal be consummated by the voters at the polls on June 2, or shall this deal be defeated by the defeat of Mr. Furnish? Shall all the departments of the state government be factionalized according to the program of the dominant faction in Multnomah County? Shall this one faction be put in charge of every state institution, as it certainly will be if Mr. Furnish is elected?

"As between mere factions of the Republican party, solely as Republicans, the people will not have much choice. But as between their methods, the conduct of conventions, and the treatment of defeated Republicans, there is all the difference possible. For the past four years the state administration controlled by members of the other faction has been run on broad party lines. No appointee was turned down because he belonged to one faction or the other. The state institutions and departments have been conducted without a thought of building up any faction. On the plan of the action that stands back of Mr. Furnish, every institution, every department, every board will be monopolized for his faction."

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT

Good Lecture by Mrs. Hamlin —Wire Nuisances.

Mrs. Conde Hamlin of St. Paul spoke on civic improvement before the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs last night at the First Baptist Church. This lecture was under the auspices of the Lewis and Clark Civic Improvement Association.

Mrs. Hamlin based her remarks upon her observations in different cities throughout the country. She said that the most signs were prominent in St. Paul as in Portland. She said in part: "Overhanging wires were once a great nuisance, but lately most of them have been put underground. In some cities of beautiful shade trees, especially Buffalo, N. Y., trees have died for lack of attention, and I advise my auditors to take up this matter with the city authorities."

CADETS AS MINSTRELS.

(Journal Special Service.)
ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 25.—The cadets of the United States Naval Academy have organized a minstrel troupe, and tonight they will give a performance in the Annapolis Opera House. The proceeds of which will go to increase the fund for the establishment of an emergency hospital in this city. The cadets are manifesting great interest in the proposed hospital, and as there is considerable talent among them, the affair promises to be a success.

MAY FOR THIRTY YEARS.

The normal temperature for May for the past 37 years is 67 degrees. The warmest month was that of 1888, with an average of 62 degrees, and the coldest was that of 1889, with an average of 52. The highest temperature was 99 degrees, on May 29, 1887; the lowest was 52 degrees, on May 8, 1891. The least monthly precipitation was .25 of an inch, in 1888; the greatest was 6.69 inches, in 1878. The greatest amount of precipitation, recorded in any 24 consecutive hours was 1.69 inches, on May 19 and 20, 1878. The average number of clear days is 5; partly cloudy days, 11; cloudy days, 12. The prevailing winds have been from the northwest. The highest velocity of the wind was 42 miles from the southwest on May 25, 1894, and from the south on May 28, 1900.

Church Celebration.

The feast of St. Mark the Apostle was celebrated yesterday at St. Mark's Church, corner Nineteenth and Quimby streets. Eleven people were confirmed. Rev. J. E. Simpson, the pastor, reported that $17,000 of last year's debt was raised. Rev. Mr. Glover, the new diocesan missionary, preached the sermon. The music was appropriate to the occasion, Mr. Lightner, the choir-master, having prepared special pieces. After the program, refreshments were served in the vestry by the ladies of the parish.

THE FIELD OF SPORT

At 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon the Monograms will meet for the last time previous to the opening of the regular professional season, the Portlands. The game ought to be a good one. Both teams have practiced faithfully and are in fine trim to give the large crowd, who will attend, good ball. Whitebeck, who has never been seen on the local field yet, will probably be in the box.

PHILADELPHIA, April 25.—An enormous crowd went to Franklin Field this afternoon for the annual athletic games of the University of Pennsylvania, which promises to be the most notable ever pulled off in America.

The entry list breaks all records, more than one hundred schools and colleges being represented by their best athletes. The entries are not only more numerous than in previous years, but are also more representative. Nearly every big institution in the East will be represented in the various events, while the honors of the West will be held up by stars from the universities of Chicago, Michigan, Wisconsin, Notre Dame and Illinois.

Interest centers chiefly in the big relay race in which a galaxy of star athletes from Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Chicago, Michigan and Pennsylvania will be seen at their best.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 25.—The season of the Southern Baseball League opens today and from now until September 21 the fans will have enough to keep them busy. The teams composing the league are Nashville, Memphis, Atlanta, Birmingham, Shreveport, New Orleans, Little Rock and Chattanooga.

What makes the Southern league season this year a remarkable one is the fact that all the teams are regarded as unusually strong and are so evenly matched on paper that the race for the pennant is bound to develop into a most magnificent struggle.

FORT WORTH, Texas, April 25.—The season of the Texas Baseball League opens today and from all indications it will be one of the most successful since the introduction of the game in the Southwest. The circuit this year is a compact one, including Fort Worth, Paris, Sherman, Denison, Corsicana, Waco and Dallas.

On the second day of the Waverly Golf tournament Miss Alice Sibson and Mrs. E. D. Warner won the women's four-somes, with the fine score of 57. The men's open championship has narrowed down to the semi-finals, in which Macleay will meet today Walker, and Ayer will meet Young. In the women's class, Miss Sibson will play Miss King, the winner to meet Miss Griggs, of Tacoma, for the championship.

John D. Carson won the men's driving contest, with 223 yards, and Miss King the women's, with 164 yards. Thales Linthicum made the best average drive, 174 yards for four drives. Miss Griggs won the women's average drive, with 104 yards for four drives. Captain Gordon Vorhees won the men's prize for clock golf, with a score of 22, and Mrs. N. E. Ayer the women's with a score of 18.

The tournament will end today, and the championship events will be decided this afternoon.

A meeting of the Riverside Driving Club was held in the office of the Rural Spirit last night, and it was decided to hold a series of matinee races during the Summer. The first meeting will be held on June 14.

There will be a double gymnasium exhibition and a programme at the Y. M. C. A. tonight, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. Director M. M. Ringler has arranged an interesting programme, and there will be tumbling, basket-ball, class drills and special gymnastic feats. In the auditorium another excellent programme will be carried out, and there will be special music for both events.

STRIKE Of the Laundry Workers Almost Certain.

A Meeting Tonight to Vote Upon It.

The laundry-workers will hold a special meeting tonight in Union hall, A. O. U. W. building, and vote upon the proposition whether or not to institute an immediate strike.

Judging from the remarks made by employes today, there is scarcely any doubt as to what the result of the vote will be, as they are extremely irate at the attitude recently assumed by the Employers' Association.

For the last month a committee from the workers' union has held weekly conferences with the Employers' Association, endeavoring to arrive at an agreement, but owing to the unyielding policy of the latter, nothing could be accomplished. The arbitration committee failed to make a report, and now everything has been left in the hands of the employes, and it is almost a foregone conclusion that a big strike will be declared tonight.

During the past week several union employes have been discharged from Troy and other laundries for expressing themselves rather freely on the situation. The Employers' Association has not been idle, and it is intimated that Mr. Bates of the Union Laundry, who is now in the East, is there for the purpose of looking up cheap labor. The employes have repeatedly informed the proprietors that they would drop the wage question if they would only give them recognition, but this they refused to do.

The association professes to be opposed to the union because it would be impossible to secure enough union help during the busy summer season. But the union squelches this argument with the following effectual declaration: At one time all the laundries in the city have never employed over 307 employes, while the present union membership is about half a dozen short of the 300 mark.

It is stated this morning that a laundry employer was given $500 the other day to join forces with the association and help down the union. The following are the laundries which belong to the association: The Pacific, the City, the Star, the Union, the American, the Novelty, the Troy and the Dalton.

'ROUND TOWN.

The fourth symphony concert will take place next Monday evening at the Marquam theater. Haydn's Military Symphony and selections from Moszkowski and Van der Stucken will be rendered by the orchestra. A special feature will be a piano solo by Mrs. Beatrice B. Dierke.

Mayor Rowe received a letter from William T. Heiss, of Aurora, Ill., which he turned over to the Board of Trade. Mr. Heiss writes that he would like to correspond with Portland's progressive citizens relative to establishing a piano factory here.

WILL SOON BE OVER The Fair Site Will Soon Be Settled.

The directors of the Lewis and Clark Exposition are out today looking over the several sites suggested by The Journal's voting contest, with a view to informing themselves as to which is the most desirable for the purpose. On May 3 proposals will be received and opened for bidders for the Fair. The selection, of course, will not be immediately made thereafter, still the agony of waiting will not have to be endured for very long. The Journal, however, urges its readers to rush in their votes, so that the directors may have the desires of the public as a sort of a fingerboard to guide them.

Here is the vote today:

C. F. FEE HERE.

General Passenger Agent of the Northern Pacific.

General Passenger Agent Fee of the Northern Pacific and General Passenger Agent Craig of the O. R. & N. Co. came to Portland last night together from the passenger meeting at Coronado Beach, Cal. Mr. Fee said to The Journal this morning:

"I haven't been in Portland since last August. It is always a pleasant place to come to. I hardly know what to talk to you about. Your paper has already published all the news regarding the increased train service of the Northern Pacific, so there isn't anything to say about that.

"The Northern Pacific, in all its history, never did so immense an immigration business. We feel that we have a right to be proud of what we have accomplished in this direction. The class of settlers that our line has carried come of the solidest states in the country. Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin and other states of the great Middle West have been drawn upon, and they have furnished some splendid material for the development of the Pacific North-

AN EXCURSION

Opportunity to See the Beautiful Upper Willamette Valley.

Very few Portland people have had an opportunity of seeing the upper end of the Willamette Valley, especially on the Corvallis side. In order to meet the wishes of many of their friends the Past Sachers' Association have arranged that their excursion on Sunday, May 11, return on the Corvallis side. The train will leave Portland at 8 o'clock on Sunday morning, going up to Albany on the east side of the valley, arriving there in time for lunch, a stay of about two hours of time to see Albany. Leaving here, the excursion will cross the river and take the Corvallis Valley & Eastern line, visiting Corvallis, where a stay will be made to enable every one to see that town.

Few people have seen this part of the Willamette valley and all will want to see it. It being the cream of the Upper Willamette. Returning on the west side, the train will arrive at Portland about 9 o'clock at night. This is an opportunity not always afforded the people of Portland, and a bumper crowd should take advantage of the trip. Arrangements have been made so that no one will have to stand plenty of seats being provided for all. Remember the date, Sunday, May 11.

Baseball Tomorrow.

Tomorrow (Sunday), at the baseball grounds, the Portland Club will play the Monograms. The game will be called at 2:30, and a large crowd is expected. Admission, 25 cents. Go out and see the boys play.

They advanced the scale of wages prepared by themselves, not being guided by that submitted by the employes.
